ALLEGED SLAYER BOUND TO GRAND JURY; NO MOTIVE ESTABLISHED

Victim Stabbed

With Razor Set in Ice Pick Handle

Still protesting his innocence, Samuel Martin, 38 years old, living at 2403 Northwestern avenue, refuses to tell detectives why or how he killed Robert Clark, 40 years old, same address, last Saturday evening in an altercation and is bound over to the grand jury in the Marion county jail on a charge of murder, without bond.

Spurgeon Davenport and Gilbert Jones, the first police officers to reach the scene of the crime said, that they found Clark lying on the front porch of the North side address bleeding badly and trailed a stream of blood into the house. Clark, they said, had been stabbed in the neck and abdomen and died before a City Hospital ambulance could arrive.

A few minutes later, Jones and a fellow officer arrested Martin and found that he had been slashed on the wrist. He denied having killed Clark and said that a James Clark, living in the 500 block in West Twenty-sixth street was the guilty man. The officers sent Clark's body to the morgue and arrested Martin on a charge of vagrancy and murder.

In the ambulance they found an improvised knife made by filing a razor down to a point and stuck in an ice-pick handle in Martin's shoe covered with blood.

No one, as yet seems to know just what the trouble started over but Louise Pennamon, 39 years old, 2401 1/2 Northwestern avenue, an eye-witness, said that the couple had been arguing all day and that as he came out of the front door he saw Clark walk up and place

COLORED DELEGATES SCARCE AS YOUNG DEMOS GATHER HERE

Thousands of persons converged on this beautiful and gaily decorated City last week to attend the four-day convention of the Young Democrats of America.

Highlights of the convention included addresses by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, her son, James, and James A. Farley postmaster general. Fun was the order of the day last Friday at a stag party given at the Murat Temple. Delegates from all over the state joined the celebration consisting of music, entertainment and refreshments. Approximately 2,000 persons were present.

While colored delegates were poorly represented as a whole, the few attending made their presence known by participating in most of the various meetings and entertainments. Under the guidance of Charles Monger, chairman of affairs for entertainment for colored delegates, an employee in the City engineering department, and Grant Hawkins, deputy fire marshal, out of town delegates were shown what exists in true democracy in Marion county.

They were feted at an open house party given by Earl Barnett, president of the eighteenth ward young democrats, in the Claypool hotel. Colored delegates' headquarters were in 646, a room costing $15.00 per day and made possible by George S. Lupear, investigator of the Alcoholic Beverage Commission, and assistant to William E. Clair, Twelfth ward democratic chairman, and Joe Howard, president of Marion county young democrats. Mr. Howard is well-known among colored people for his dynamic fight waged in their behalf against the K. K. K. several years ago, and Leo O'Connor, of the prosecutor's office.

Debate plans have been started delegates, an employee in the

POLICE LAUNCH DRIVE ON VICE

VICE COMPLAINTS WILL BRING ACTION, CHIEF MORRISSEY PROMISES; JOINTS MUST GO

Acting within the range of their chief's words which were, "make arrests wherever you find evidence," police vice squads, collaborating with state excise officers, skirted throughout the city this week as they began an intensive drive on gambling, vice, violation, and the operation of lotteries.

Already, over a dozen persons have been arrested for violation of the 1935 beverage acts and other arrests on the remaining violations will be made as soon as sufficient evidence can be found, police officers say.

$75 IN CHANGE CAUSES POLICE TO HOLD MAN

Authorities are holding here a man who calls himself Carl Prim, 39, 1201 W. 25th street, until they can fathom out the mysterious acquiring of a sum of money that he was found carrying in a bag with a Connorsville bank's name on it.

Prim first aroused the suspicion of an Indiana avenue pawnshop owner when he made a purchase and paid for it with pennies that he had previously pawned with $5 in small silver.

Lieut. Ray Peak, head of the accident prevention bureau, acting on a broadcast that the car which the man was driving had Kentucky license found the car parked in the 400 block on Indiana avenue and arrested the driver. The lieutenant found a bag with $75 in it and marked on the bag Central State Bank, Connorsville, Ind.

When questioned, Prim said that he was employed at a carnival at Connorsville and had earned the money for a week's wages.

He was arrested and placed under high bond for vagrancy, carrying concealed weapons, and driving a car without license. Police say that Prim has served time for rape.

Police are still searching for a

Parade of Champions

From John L. to Joe

Joe Louis steps into the ring at the Yankee Stadium as the fifteenth heavyweight champion of the world and besides that the youngest to ever hold the coveted honor. Joe was exactly 22 years, 11 months and 21 days old when he beat James J. Braddock on June 22, at Comiskey Park in Chicago.

In naming Joe the fifteenth titleholder, John L. Sullivan's name is omitted since John L. really was the champion under London prize ring rules. Jim Corbett really was the first champion under the newly adopted rules of boxing. He beat John L. in 21 rounds in New Orleans.

FREAK ACCIDENTS, BICYCLE FALLS HIKE WEEK-END INJURIES

Bicycle falls and freak accidents of all kinds caused a number of injuries to persons during the week-end. None was serious, however.

Curtis Eden, 39, 929 North Center avenue, told police officers that he was driving his automobile East on Sixteenth street, and Charles Overton, 15, 703 Fayette street, was riding his bicycle West on Sixteenth street, when he started to turn south onto Northwestern avenue, and ran into his automobile. Overton was thrown from the bicycle and received injuries to his right leg and arm. His companion, riding with him, was thrown from the bicycle also. Both boys were ordered to attend the police traffic school, by Officers Butler and Luster.

Identifies Man As Robber-Slayer

With bond set at $25,000, Thomas Morris, living in the 1900 block Yandes street, was bound over to the grand jury this week after he was positively identified by Donald Demree, a local druggist, as the man who in a hold-up several weeks ago shot and killed his father, Arthur.

Morris appeared in police court on a charge of having stuck up a trackless trolley some time ago and was identified by Demree as the man who had caused trouble to strike at his family on the night that his father was fatally wounded. Both of the Demrees were wounded in the fight and the young man has not fully recovered.

Braddock Mourns Challenger; Says Bomber Far Deadlier

"Joe Louis will knock the socks off Tommy Farr," said Jim Braddock, or words to that effect, when he was interviewed by a sport writer recently.

Jimmy is one of the most recent to feel the sleep-producing punches of the new champion, and for that reason perhaps better able to give some real dope as to the outcome of the bout tonight.

Braddock was asked, "do you think he'll nail Farr with a few of those punches?"

"I don't know," Jim said, "but if he does Farr will find out just what I did—that Joe is the hard-

MRS. ANNA WASHINGTON

Fifty delegates with Rev. Judge I. Saunders are scheduled to leave the city Monday morning, September 6, to attend the National Baptist Convention of America held in Birmingham, Ala.

Plans have been made to stop at Nashville, Tenn., for a visit at the publishing house and to contact Dr. H. A. Boyd, executive secretary. One bus load and twenty-five persons traveling in private cars have arranged to take the trip. Rev. Sayer is the entertaining pastor of the convention. The group will leave Birmingham Sunday evening. Mrs. Anna Washington and Rev. C. J. Duley is in charge of arrangements for transportation.

Mrs. Washington is first vice-president of State Women's convention. Mrs. E. J. K. Hines, president of Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Convention, is among others who will make the trip. The National Convention is the outgrowth of the Indiana State Baptist Missionary Association of

JOE TO FIGHT MONDAY NIGHT

The championship fight between Joe Louis, heavyweight champion, and Tommy Farr, British titleholder, was postponed until Monday night because of rain. Mike Jacobs made the decision just after the two fighters had weighed in and hopes of a let-up in the weather vanished.

This is the second time that Joe has had one of his major bouts postponed. The last time was with Max Schmeling and sport fans are wondering if this postponement will end in the same disastrous fashion?

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(SPL.)—Joe Louis, world heavyweight champion, will take on Max Schmeling in Chicago sometime in October, it is reported. All plans have been made except signing the contract by Schmeling, which is

Mrs. M. Southern, Former Resident, Injured in Crash

A fractured right leg, internal injuries and lacerations about the face were received by Mrs. Marguerite Southern, 914 Jefferson.

Louisville, last Saturday night when the car in which she had been riding was struck from the rear on state road 67 by an alleged drunken motorist.

The accident occurred when Mrs. Southern's two companions, Nathaniel Rutledge, 615 West Tenth street, and Franklin Williams, were engaged in repairing a blown out tire. They were slight-

With eleven colored posts participating, the American Legion encampment held in Terre Haute, Ind., August 22, 23, and 24 was ended Tuesday.

The Pioneer Auxiliary of Terre Haute made a very good showing in the parade; the members being dressed in white uniforms and led by the Sons of the Legion, drum corps, Tillman H. Harpole, drum and bugle corps.

Two singular honors were won by the Tillman H. Harpole post of Indianapolis; the Floyd S. Young trophy was awarded them for having made the largest increase in membership of any post in the state. Their color guard ranked third. The Gary, Ind., post has the largest membership of any Negro post in the state.

Negro attendance to the convention was reported to be the largest in the history of the state. A resolution favoring the enactment of the anti-lynch bill and the establishing of three Negro National Guards. The South Bend post, number 299 sponsored the anti-lynch bill through its district and Harpole post, number 249, Indianapolis originated the resolution for Negro national guards.

Bishop C. H. Phillips Here; Dr. Womack Host to Council

Marking one of the most successful and constructive sessions held in its history, the Nineteenth Biennial session of the Women's Convention of the C. M. E. Convention came to a close Sunday evening at Phillips Temple church, Rev. A. W. Womack, pastor.

Among the many interesting speakers was Princess Barina Massaquai, of West Africa. The Princess was present at the League of Nations at Geneva in 1936. Mrs. Rossie Hollis, Nashville, Tenn., was named executive secretary, and will travel throughout the nation in the interest of the organization. Water from the river Jordan in the Holy Land was used by Bishop C. H. Phillips, Cleveland, in baptizing seven children. Rev. James A. Ragan, secretary of the superannuated preachers, widows and orphan department, was guest speaker at eleven o'clock services.

Plans to establish a home for retired ministers and members of the convention were made. More than $20,000 was reported raised by

Boys Angle for Craws And Catfish But Land Catbird

A fishing trip made for cat-fish and craws last Wednesday yielded a cat-bird instead to James Dunn, 12, 924 California street, and Morris Hutchens, 14, 909 Utica street.

The two boys left home early Wednesday morning and started fishing at Tenth street and the Canal. After fishing about two hours and having no luck they sat down on the bank each trying to relate how much more disgusted he was than the other. Their discussion was interrupted shortly by a small bird that flew low over their heads and they watched it saw it fly into a stone protection on the bridge and fall stunned into the water.

Fired with a new adventure . . . that of rescuing the bird, both boys threw bricks into deep water hoping the waves would bring it close to shore; but instead the bird floated smoothly down the canal. Several attempts were made by the time the trio had reached Vermont street and the Canal and where the water was quite shallow. Rolling up his already "short-styled" trousers, James entered the water in a last desperate effort to effect a rescue. Cautious steps near the center of the canal and where the water now soaked James' trousers that were pulled up near his waistline, was soon rewarded; the bird floated right into his hands.

Frightened, stunned and too wet to fly it was brought out to dry. The bird, a trifle larger than a sparrow is called the Cat-bird, an American song bird, dark gray with a black cap and reddish undertail. It was so named from one of its calls resembling the meow of a cat.

James is a pupil at number Four school and in the fifth grade while Morris is an eighth grade student at school number Seventeen. The bird was to be set free when it had dried.

TO DISCUSS C.I.O. AT JONES

Asserting that there are certain conditions and certain things facing the Negroes of Indianapolis which if not stopped will effect everyone of them, Rev. A. W. Womack, citizens committee chairman, urges every one to be present at the mass meeting of the N.A.A.C.P. held at Jones Tabernacle A.M.E. Zion church, Monday night. Discussions of how the C.I.O. and other labor organizations effect the Negro will be given.

seemed angry about the whole thing and told me that it was the first time he had ever been threatened with a stick in the hands of a colored man. "About half an hour after the argument was over Chief Jailer McAllister, came out and got my badge," Cross said that he was never questioned or even called in to conference about the affair. The former deputy sheriff said that more than one deputy has been fired because he refused to carry out orders concerning the talking of visitors to prisoners. He said that during the time he has been working in the jail since he was transferred from the court, house office, numerous Federal agents, police officers, and state police have from time to time been treated with the greatest of courtesy when they made known their rank or authority as peace officers. He said that at no time did the Wichser make known that he was a deputy marshal. Mr. McAllister, chief jailer, said that there was no racial angle involved in the story that Cross told at all. He said that any man who acted as Cross did would immediately be discharged and that the fact that Cross was colored was just incidental. Mr. McAllister said "Cross knew as well as anybody around here that Julius Wichser was a Deputy U. S. Marshal and that he had no right to threaten him with a club and carry on in the manner that he did. Other men, white men, have been fired around here for being discourteous and when they fail to be courteous to anybody, not Wichser, alone, but anybody, they will be reprimanded and if necessary, as it was in this case, fired." In defending himself for not calling Cross in for a hearing Mr. McAllister said that they had all the other witnesses there who were implicated and stated that he thought that it was sufficient proof to warrant the actions he took. He declined to state whether Cross would be reinstated as a deputy sheriff in the future.

F. S. BELCHER DRAMA PROF, VISITS HERE

Declaring that colleges are turning to drama and will go far in the future, F. S. Belcher, Jr., professor of English and Director of Dramatics at West Virginia State college, Institute, West Virginia, urged community cooperation and interest in a little theatre movement.

Mr. Belcher will begin his seventh year in teaching all phases of dramatic art at West Virginia in September. Much success has been made in the dramatic department by giving contributions, one of which is a diamond studded key called the "directors key," and is awarded to the student acquiring the most units during the course. Several trips during the season is made with a picked group.

The school boasts of having one of two summer theatres in the South not under jurisdiction of the school, the other being at Atlanta university. Among plays that have been given at West Virginia are: "The Man Who Died at Twelve O'Clock," "Mighty Wind Ablowin'," "Ti Yette" and "Crutler," including a series of one-act and three-act plays.

Mr. Belcher is visiting his aunt Miss May Belcher, Executive Secretary of the Phyllis Wheatley Y. W. C. A.

FINAL PHASES OF PREPARATION BEING MADE AT LOCKEFIELD

Contrary to erroneous rumors circulating among this $3,200,000 project, all indications point to the fact that the opening date is not far off.

Activity on the project is now centered around minor details such as washing windows, dusting, polishing floors and cleaning up basements. Truckloads of gleaming white refrigerators were delivered this week and some have already been installed. In the four room apartment there will be placed a refrigerator six cubic feet in size; in the three room apartment a refrigerator five cubic feet will be installed. In the majority of the apartments linoleum has been laid in the kitchens. The electric stoves have already been installed, also the white enameled kitchen cabinets, with compartments for all kitchen utensils.

The kitchens are bright and airy and of ample size for the average family as may be seen on the pictures on display in the Temporary Office. Large windows with inside screens provide the housewife with plenty of ventilation and sunlight. The sinks, located between the refrigerators and the stoves, are of the double basin type with hot and cold water faucets.

The prospective tenants may be sure of the fact that Lockefield Gardens, when opened for occupancy, will be the finest and most economical living quarters available for the lower income group here in the city.

A project of its size and scope naturally has some minor repairs necessary before completion. However, the contractor is at present working to adjust these discrepancies so as to turn the buildings over to the Government for final acceptance at the earliest possible date.

In the 12 storerooms there will be a variety of businesses planned so as to provide the tenants of Lockefield with every possible convenience. Clean, modern up-to-date businesses such as will be located in Lockefield Gardens cannot but stimulate business in general in the community and indirectly cause surrounding merchants to provide their customers with efficient service.

Negro families of Indianapolis, whose incomes fall within the government, for a clean, decent dwelling surrounded by educational recreational facilities conducive to the development of better citizens in our city.

HIT JIM CROW CARS IN N. Y.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—A protest has been sent the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Pennsylvania railroad on the practice of allowing "white" and "colored" signs to remain in passenger coaches on trains that are brought into New York City from the South through Washington. Complaints have come to the N. A. A. C. P. from time to time that train conductors and brakemen on the Pennsylvania fail to remove these signs when the train is taken over in Washington from the southern railroads. The latest complaint was made by Arthur W. Craig of Mount Vernon, N. Y., who states that on August 2 he boarded a train at the 30th street station in Philadelphia, bound for New York and that a white passenger who got on the train at Trenton, N. J., asked the conductor where he could find a seat and the conductor replied "up ahead in the colored coach." Mr. Craig relates that in order to verify this statement he went up ahead and found a partitioned coach with the signs "white" and "colored" still in place.

The N. A. A. C. P. referred a similar complaint in April, 1936, to the Pennsylvania railroad and was told that the matter "would be investigated." Evidently no specific instructions have been issued to Pennsylvania trainmen by the railroad to remove these signs. The N. A. A. C. P. accordingly is urging the Interstate Commerce Commission to see that the signs are removed.

Passes State Board With High Grade

Reports confirming the statement that Spurling Clark, 2018 N. Capitol avenue, who recently passed the State Board of Pharmacy, had made the highest average, could not be substantiated late Thursday.

Clark however obtained an average of 91 per cent. One other student received a grading of 94 per cent, but it is a popular belief that he will not be rated over Clark because of taking only part of the work. Clark is a graduate of the Indianapolis College of Pharmacy. He is employed at the Methodist hospital where he served his apprenticeship of two years. He has been employed as a pharmacist at the hospital for eight years.

CONFIDENCE

The first funeral time in a family, brings a situation of inexperience as to what to do, which Funeral Director to call. It is well then to be able to turn to one in whom you know you can have explicit confidence, one whom you know is most efficiently equipped, prepared, and capable to faultlessly serve, and whose charges will be correctly reasonable.

And this respectfully suggests to you our name; the character and extent of service we give; the comforting aid our high degree of attention brings.

'BEEFSTEAK' TOMATOES GROW TEN FEET HIGH, WEIGH A POUND EACH, YIELD A BUSHEL AT A PICKING

The lowly tomato, which only a few months ago was obscure, only used and thought of when the housewife made soups or sauces has made its bid for the lime light and praise . . . at least a part of the attention received by the once lowly sweet potato and peanut.

But no enterprising scientist has troubled to tear down the molecules or extract the various ingredients of the tomato and put them to some use whereby the world would acclaim it. Moreover an ordinary layman with the knack for gardening is responsible for its most recent acclaim. The layman, John N. Thompson, 2109 Al-free street, came to this city in 1935 from Trinton, Mich., where he and his wife engaged in tilling a four-acre garden.

Last May in the 10 by 60 ft garden comprising a part of his back yard, Thompson and his wife planted from Indiana seeds a patch of tomatoes including corn, okra and a variety of beans. Since that time the now tree-shaped tomato plants have grown to the appalling heights of 10 feet and are still growing. The plants produce tomatoes weighing 3/4 to 1 pound. Normally the plants will yield a bushel of tomatoes at a picking.

Mr. Thompson, who is out of work has been subsisting on food raised in his garden for many weeks, is an expert farmer and plans to use the entire backyard next year for his garden. Mr. Thompson says the giant vegetable is called the "Beef Steak" tomato because of its resemblance to a steak when it is cut. It is solid and contains few seeds.

MAN DIES FROM FINGER BITE; WOMAN FREED

Claude Malone, 1629 Bundy place, was free today of a charge of manslaughter, but she still had some of that enraged temper for a reporter, that she evidently employed in defending herself from Eric Williams by biting him on the finger which resulted in his death from blood poisoning several days later.

Looking up from her ironing board she said, "I don't want my picture in the paper and I don't want no story neither." You ain't no lawyer and you ain't no judge and I don't have to tell you nothing and I ain't going to neither. Get out of my house and don't come back."

Neighbors said that Mrs. Malone was a very nice person until she was aroused and when she was it was just too bad for somebody. Williams is alleged to have beaten the woman up on several occasions when he was drunk. On July 21 the couple is alleged to have gotten in an argument which resulted in a fight. Williams was bitten on the finger and neglected treatment, dying in the United States Administration Hospital this week, of blood poisoning. Mrs. Malone was arrested and charged with manslaughter but was exonerated in Municipal court room 3. She pleaded self-defense and was not represented by counsel.

'PEACE-MAKER' SLASHED

Resorting to the role of a peace-maker resulted in trouble and bodily injury to Frank Johnson, 24, 316 West 11th street, early this week. He was treated at the City hospital and sent home.

Johnson said that he knew neither of the two men.

STABBED IN ARM

When Mary Miller, 25, 927 Pace street, called police and told them that her upstairs neighbor, Eula Foster, 927 1/2 Pace, had come down stairs and without any reason stabbed her in the arm and shoulder with an ice pick and then bit her, the officers declined to believe just that so they investigated further and finally arrested the Miller woman for assault and battery and the Foster woman for assault and battery with intent. Officers Butler and Luster said that the case was continued in police court.

Says U. S. Court to Get Scottsboro Appeal

'Finish Fight' Looms As 'Leniency' Promises Are Forgot

DECATUR, Ala., Aug. 27. (ANP)—Despite statements from "authentic sources" that the four boys sentenced for attacking two white women in the Scottsboro cases would be freed by executive clemency, it was indicated Saturday that the U. S. supreme court would pass on them again for the third time.

"High sources" forecast a fight to the finish, intimating the agreement by which appeals were to be dropped in exchange for executive clemency had gone awry. Four of the nine boys were freed under this agreement July 4 after more than six years in jail. Ten Alabama juries returned guilty verdicts in the cases and one failed to agree. The state supreme court has upheld every appeal brought before it, but the U. S. supreme court has twice set aside death sentences.

REPORTS NURSERY SCHOOLS SERVED MORE THAN 8,000 NEEDY CHILDREN BETWEEN AGES 2 TO 5

WASHINGTON, D. C.,—Nursery schools operated by the Works Progress Administration served more than 8,000 needy colored children between the ages of 2 and 5 during the past school year, according to Dr. Grace Lankton, Specialist in Parent Education and Nursery Schools for the WPA.

More than 1,000 colored workers were employed on projects of this type as teachers, nurses, dietitians, cooks and janitors, Dr. Lankton reports. Some of the schools, located in recreation centers, settlement houses, and churches, are continuing in operation through the summer months, while others which have closed may reopen in the fall.

One of the major difficulties faced by the WPA in first attempting to establish such schools was a lack of adequate housing facilities for them. It was not often possible to obtain suitable space in the area which most needed to be served. School buildings were usually overcrowded, dwellings large enough for the project's requirements were rarely available, and churches and other buildings were used for so many other purposes that frequently they could not donate the required space.

But through untiring efforts space generally was found. Wherever the schools were established, they operated as genuine community projects. Space, heat, light, and supplies were furnished by local sponsors, and merchants cooperated in donating milk, food, and clothing for the most needy children. In nearly every case WPA funds were supplemented by the furnishing of all necessary supplies, so that nearly all the work relief funds went directly into teachers' salaries.

Frequently it was necessary to train teachers taken from the relief rolls in the special methods of nursery education. Institutes were held in many states, while in others a model demonstration unit was set up and courses carrying college credit were offered. Typical of the projects now in operation is one at the J. T. Hill Community Center in Indianapolis, Indiana. This school is equipped to accommodate twenty-two children. In charge are licensed teachers, taken from the relief rolls. Through the efforts of the teachers a mother's club composed of the mothers of children enrolled in the school has been organized.

At noon a balanced, nourishing meal is served, and cod liver oil is given when necessary. Naps follow, giving the active, growing bodies a chance to relax and get much-needed rest.

Not only have the teachers engaged to carry on the program been aided through employment and training, and the children through supervised play and rest, but the parents as well have benefited through the knowledge that their children are being well cared for while they are busy at other tasks, and through close contact with the teachers, who are well equipped to help them solve their children's problems.

BROTHERHOOD CELEBRATES 12TH BIRTHDAY

NEW YORK, Aug. 27. (CNA)—With twelve long years of militant trade union struggle behind them, members of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters this week celebrated the twelfth anniversary of their union with a mass meeting at the Mother A. M. E. Church, West 137th Street, this city.

Among the speakers who addressed the meeting were Florentino H. La Guardia, Mayor of New York and an honorary member of the Brotherhood; A. Philip Randolph, international president, and Ashley L. Totten, international secretary-treasurer of the Brotherhood.

Messages of congratulations for many hard won victories have been pouring in for the past week into the executive offices of the Brotherhood, located at 36 West 135th Street.

The Brotherhood is one of the most popular unions throughout North America. Particularly has it attracted wide praise in the manner in which it has organized Negro women to support its struggles, and for its progressive stand against war and fascism.

MAJOR GREEN DIES IN CHAIR

OSHING, N. Y., Aug. 27. (CNA)—Major Green, 34-year-old porter, went to his death in the electric chair in Sing Sing prison here this week for the murder last January of Mrs. Mary Harriet Case, writer, in Jackson Heights, Queens.

The Rev. Anthony N. Peterson, Protestant chaplain, and Rev. C. G. Wolcott, pastor of the Little Church Around in the Corner in Harlem, which Green attended, accompanied Green to the execution room.

Green worked in the apartment building in which Mrs. Case lived. He was arrested several days after her body was found in her bathtub. She had been strangled and beaten over the head with a hammer. His trial and conviction took place in a rapid lynch atmosphere, typical of the deep South.

JOHN CLIFTON HURT

Senate Warned On Tenn. Lynching

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—Citing the lynching of Albert Gooden at Covington, Tenn., on August 17 as a warning to the Senate that action on a federal anti-lynching bill must be taken speedily in the new session, Senators Robert F. Wagner, of New York, and Frederick Van Nuys, of Indiana, placed descriptions of the Tennessee lynching in the Congressional Record.

The action of the sponsors of the anti-lynching bill in the Senate was taken at the suggestion of the N. A. A. C. P. In the last desperate efforts to secure action on a federal anti-lynching bill at this session of Congress, Walter White, N. A. A. C. P. secretary, repeated recalled to friends of the bill in the Senate that if action were postponed, the Senate would be in a measure responsible for lynchings which take place in the interim.

The N. A. A. C. P. also has sent a letter to Governor Gordon H. Browning, of Tennessee, urging him to use every weapon of the state to assist local authorities in speeding the apprehension and punishment of the lynchers of Gooden. The N. A. A. C. P. letter cited the fact that nothing has been done by the States of Alabama, Mississippi, and Florida following lynchings in those states this year. In Alabama, the state attorney general asserted before the state supreme court that Wesley Johnson, lynched on February 2, was innocent of any crime and had been arrested by the sheriff just to satisfy local clamor for an arrest. Despite the fact that an innocent man was lynched, Alabama has done nothing.

As it was to have been expected, Mississippi has made no move whatsoever even to investigate the brutal blowtorch double lynching at Duck Hill, April 13. Despite pronouncements of Governor Fred P. Cone, of Florida, the authorities of that state have done nothing to apprehend the lynchers of two boys in Tallahassee on July 20.

The N. A. A. C. P. asserts that the record of the local and state authorities in the six lynchings of 1937 demonstrated that a federal law is necessary if any progress is to be made toward wiping out mob violence.

MEDICS ASK SYPHILIS TESTS FOR CHILDREN

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 27. (ANP)—Wassermann tests for all pre-school children in order to expose latent cases of syphilis, and birth control for syphilitic and mentally deficient women were asked in resolutions adopted by the National Medical Association in its annual meeting held here last week.

Dean Numa P. Adams of the Howard university medical school announced the opening of a department for instruction of physicians in treatment of syphilis, under sponsorship of the U. S. Public Health Service.

Memberships also protested against the practice in many Southern states of refusing to permit Negro physicians to treat Negro patients on relief. Speaking over radio station KSD, Dr. Roscoe Giles of Chicago, president blasted this practice as "reducing patients to the level of experimental guinea pigs, such as exists in European centers under state medicine and which gives the patient little freedom of decision as to what will be done with his own body."

trio of bad men, two of them brothers, who attacked and cut George Williams, 21, 2461 Sheldon avenue, and Jesse Wilson, 31, 1932 Boulevard place, the first of the week. Williams was treated for cuts on the back of his head and neck whereas Wilson who is employed at the Douglas park was cut on the left side of the face.

The men said that their attackers passed in an alley between Arsenal and Sheldon avenue. Howard Morton, 21, 2257 Yandes street, Frank Sweat, 22, 2200 Hillside avenue, and Wilbur Morton, 2257 Yandes street, jumped out of the dark shouting, "Now, we have got you," and drew knives on them. During the altercation Wilson and Williams were allegedly slashed by the trio.

Wilson said that the only reason he could give for the attack was that he had broken up a craps game in the park in which the men were engaged. All three are wanted for assault and battery with intent.

MT. PARAN RANSACKED

Mt. Paran Baptist church, 12th and Missouri streets, was reported ransacked this week by Frank Dorsey the custodian. Dorsey said that he closed the church at 1:30 P. M. Sunday and when he went to work Monday morning at 8 o'clock he found that the door had been opened. Rev. C. H. Bell, pastor, said that they missed $187 from the safe which had been opened by the prowler.

Lewis E. Goen, 6, 915 Fayette street, was shaken up when he ran out in front of an automobile driven by Mrs. Joseph Timberlake, 2505 Indianapolis avenue, and knocked down. Mrs. Timberlake took the boy in her car from the scene of the accident to the hospital where doctors said there were no broken bones or bruises.

She celebrated her first wedding anniversary a few weeks ago and says she is still a "bride."

Elizabeth Douglas Charming Hostess At House Warming

Several hundred friends inspected the recently purchased and redecorated home of Miss Elizabeth May Douglass, prominent civic and political worker Sunday between the hours of 4 and 8 p. m. The crowd which filled the beautiful home and rock garden throughout the evening was highly entertained with special music, solos and short testimonials.

Miss Douglass was charming in a black chiffon evening dress print with a beautiful floral design wearing golden slippers.

The interior of the home is tastefully designed with Jacobean dining room furniture and furniture of the latest design throughout the home. Throughout the evening occasional passers-by stopped their automobiles in order to view the rock garden which covers the entire corner. It was referred to by one of the speakers as "the show place of the community."

Before a large crowd which assembled in the flower garden, Frank R. Beckwith, local attorney, extolled the characteristics of Miss Douglass and enumerated them as being thrift, persistent effort and economy. He traced her early life and struggles and reminisced over their childhood days when Miss Douglass made her home with her widowed aunt. He said, "It is remarkable and noteworthy that her friends are not among any one particular class, age, or race, but she is well and favorably known to her generation and to older ones as well."

Professor Forte, who also spoke, praised the civic pride and community betterment which Miss Douglass has brought about and characterized it as that which will cause the group to which she belongs to be more highly respected.

Rev. J. J. Moore, of Shelbyville, stated that with faith in God and work others could do as well as Miss Douglass had done and praised her as one who had set a noteworthy example.

In the receiving line with Miss Douglass were her aunt, Mrs. Anna Lynch, Mrs. Hazel Parks, Patsie Valentine, Mrs. Geraldine Harding, Mrs. Mary Green, Mrs. Elizabeth Beechum, Mrs. Luella Brock and little Miss Jacqueline Parks. Miss Douglass was the recipient of many useful gifts, floral designs and communication of all types were sent by her many friends and by various organizations. Refreshments were served and a group picture was taken in the flower garden.

Solos were rendered by Mes-

MARRIAGE CLIMAXES ROMANCE

MRS. JESSE WILLIAMS, who before her marriage was Miss Millicent Coleman, daughter of Dr. William P. Coleman, of Norfolk, Va. Her marriage on November 4, 1936, was announced last week by her father. Mrs. Williams left Norfolk a few days ago to join her husband in Boston, his home, where they will reside at 546 Columbus avenue. Mr. Williams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Williams of Boston.

Their marriage climaxed a romance which began at Fisk university where both studied. The ceremony was performed at Franklin, Tenn., and Mrs. Williams was attended by Miss Mary Lou Tylor of Covington, Ky. Mr. Williams was a member of the Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity. While at Fisk, Mrs. Williams was a member of the Ivy Leaf club of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority and of the Tanner Art society.

Natti-Me Sets Pace In Scientific Beauty Work

Mrs. Althia Miller, beautician, whose dainty-nook Natti-Me Beauty Shoppe is maintained at 404 1-2 W. Michigan over Fergar's Drug Store, Michigan and Indiana avenue, is a graduate of the Poro Beauty System, a specialist in facials, eyebrow tinting, shading and shaping, hair dyeing, curls, waves, and arches.

Discussing the exotic and alluring hair styles for which she is well known to her many patrons, she said "the good beautician is an everlasting student of hair design. Whenever a customer comes into my shop, I study her facial structure from different angles of vision. Closely I observe her personality to determine whether she is lively or coy, expressive or reticent, athletic or phlegmatic, quick or hesitating. Then I recommend a wave or a curl or hair-arch to suit her personality traits."

"For instance, a person who is excessively active may be counterbalanced by a coiffure which expresses coyness, or one who is extremely shy may be given a dashy and arching coiffure which makes her seem delightfully sophisticated."

"My special Natti-Me arch-wave lends a majestic spell of enchantment to the woman of reserved culture and staid refinement. But it would be quite inappropriate for demonaire girls in their teens."

"To give proper service in hair dyeing one must be a scientist in the business. To give results and to protect the skin from damage are the chief aims. Those drab yellow streaks often seen in blond hair can be quickly and safely removed by the Natti-Me process and made a lovely vivid hue by the bluing-tint process. By the Egyptian Henna process I restore auburn and red hair that lovely freshness which imparts a Clara Bow loveliness."

Mrs. Miller has a reputation for distinctive work which reflects the vision and taste of an artist. Visit her shop and let her treat your scalp to a delightful application of rich, creamy lather which will sink deeply into your pores and stimulate abundant hair growth, let her experienced fingers invigorate your scalp as she cleanses it of grease and grime.

Notice how the cells of your hair tingle with exhilarating new life at the application of her hot oil treatments, notice how different, how bright, how lustrous your hair will look when it is pressed in the proper way by one who knows just how to do it. Then have her apply one of her personality-fitting waves, or curls, or special wave arches. What a difference it makes. How fresh you will feel. Now stand before

Clifty Falls Visited by Wyle-A-Way Club Members

In spite of the gray dull skies which threatened to spoil the trip, an optimistic group of friends and members of the Wyle-A-Way club left Indianapolis early Sunday morning for an outing to Clifty Fall.

Arriving at the park which overlooks the majestic valley of the Ohio River, the party at once began to explore the rugged scenic beauty of its rocky gorges and dense forests. The trails proved tests of endurance for the more energetic members of the party while some were obliged to acknowledge that they simply could not "take" it. The unaccustomed exercise proved an excellent appetizer and all returned with ravenous appetites.

The picnic lunch was spread banquet style on one long table. Following a much-needed rest period, the party visited Lookout Point from which they viewed the sweeping panorama of the Ohio River flanked on either side by Kentucky and Indiana hills. At this point, the river was visible for ten miles in one direction and nine miles in another.

The final event of the trip was a visit to the historic town of Madison, once known as the "Gateway to the Southland." Here the party inspected the Lanier Mansion, a famous memorial of the Civil war period. The mansion, wonderfully preserved, offers much to those interested in the architecture and furnishings of the period. Throughout the trip, motion pictures were taken by the president, S. W. James. Guests of the club were: Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Courtney, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hines.

the mirror—see how your hair shines, how delightfully cool and fresh your head feels. Above all notice how your personality now has that nameless radiance and charm which you have always desired.

At your earliest opportunity visit the Natti-Me Poro Beauty Shoppe, or telephone Mrs. Miller at RI. 0543. Watch the Recorder for her ad. Remember a bit of time spent in her shop will give you satisfaction and charm.

CLABBER-GIRL COOKING SCHOOL PROGRAM WAS A HUGE SUCCESS

ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 20.—Again the local business group has triumphed. It is true that Mr. G. Blackshear, who is the only Negro sales representative of the Clabber Girl Baking Powder Company, was the guiding light of the recent program, but the fact that he chose to present his Food Show and Cooking School under the auspices of the Board of Trade, gives the officers and members encouragement to go on.

GRADY BLACKBURN

During a recent regular meeting of the body Mr. Blackshear was introduced by Attorney William A. Dart who thanked Mr. Newsome for extending the invitation. Mr. Blackshear told of his purpose for being in our City and urged us to cooperate. He also told us many of his experiences in such States as Georgia, North and South Carolina, Virginia and Maryland and every one was interested.

The Board of Trade, therefore, hopes the mutual understanding with Mr. Blackshear has meant as much to him as it has to us. It gave us a chance to further the work we started nearly eight years ago and made his mission in our City a success.

The program above mentioned ran from Tuesday July 20th to Friday, July 23, and it was encouraging to see the women and men of the Northside so enthusiastic about the fine lectures given by Miss Ruth Sargent, a cooking expert from Indianapolis, Ind.

Each program was carried out by making a complete meal, during which, the reason for every step taken was fully and very scientifically explained by the artist.

This course of lectures were the first to be held in this section of the Country by the Clabber-Girl Baking Powder Company and we appreciate the coming of Mr. Blackshear and Miss Sargent, as their representatives in this useful work among our people. We, of the Board of Trade have implicit confidence in the ability, integrity and general aspiration of our people. We want Negroes to rise from their slumbers and from a business standpoint show the world that they possess the capacity to do real things. From a moral, social, religious and educational standpoint, have proved our worth.

MISS RUTH SARGENT

but economically we are only infants.

Business enterprise is the answer. We must, in some way, try to embrace the plan, the idea, and the motive for business enterprise as a mother would her only child, for that is our only salvation. We were happy to cooperate in an effort so successfully concluded.

Northside residents were honored in having two members of the Negro race who demonstrated such fitness as representatives of a National enterprise.

Many of the people who attended the sessions throughout the week gave expressions of appreciation to Mr. Blackshear and Miss Sargent for making the programs so real and worthwhile to this community. It was, they said, an affair that had meant more than any one could realize. Mr. Blackshear was loud in his praise of Atty. William A. Dart, President, Dr. L. D. Wright, Secretary, C. J. Newsome, Chairman of Convention Committee, and Mr. J. Cruikshank, all of whom represented the Board of Trade throughout the week.

It was indeed a great week for colored residents of Atlantic City. We hope they will come to us again very soon.

Malleable News

Because of Mr. Buchanan's position as both a Personnel Manager for a large industrial firm and a member of the city school board, we asked him five questions. Limited space prohibits our going into the reason why. Anyway, the significance of the questions and answers will be apparent. We shall publish one question and answer each week until the five are completed, reserving comment until after completion of the publication.

At this time we would say something of the man Buchanan, himself. Beginning as a clerk in the time office he rose through the ranks to his present position of Personnel and General Office Manager. He is active in civic affairs, having been a city Commissioner and at present a member of the school board. Also active in Masonic affairs he likewise lends much time to his church work, being an officer of his own church. If you were at the Attacks' commencement in June, the sober, distinguished gentlemen who presented the diplomas was our Mr. Buchanan.

Question one: In view of the fact that vocational training is generally offered in the Indianapolis high schools what prospect has a graduate who has been so trained, of obtaining a job at this plant; particularly let us say, a boy who has had foundry or machine shop?

Answer: The best answer I can give to this question is to tell you what we have done in the past few years. We have placed in the last seven years about one hundred high school graduates, both boys and girls. Practically every department of the plant has benefited by these placements. A lot of them came from Technical High School, many from Washington, several from Shortridge, and some from Crispus Attucks, and Manual Training. We have placed many because of their particular high school training. All of our office placements have been high school graduates; nearly all our shop clerks, laboratory assistants, draughtsmen, etc., are high school graduates, and many others have been hired for production on special work. Most of our foreman now ask for high school graduates. For machine shop work, or for similar work, we would certainly require that the beginners be high school trained, along the lines fitting our needs.

Mr. Phelix Barnes and Mrs. Barnes are spending their vacations in the good old blue grass state somewhere near Princeton.

Mr. Pearl Phillips left here over the week-end for California after seeing some of the beautiful sights there. He now plans to tour some of the other Western states.

Susie Johnson and Thomas Johnson, Effie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dudley spent the week-end in Louisville. Mrs. Nannie Dyer left last Friday after spending two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Katie Harris of 621 Max well street.

Mrs. Francis Montgomery had a lovely visit with her sons Thomas, William, and John in Columbus.

No game last Saturday on account of that timely shower. However, Coach Otis made up for that by winning two games sitting down in the meeting at the "Y" last Monday. He not only protested the last games with Link Belt and Federal, and won them, but made a point of the fact that Malleable Grays have not once over-stopped the bounds covered by the by-laws of the Industrial League. There may be a moral to that little episode; one with the words fair play and honesty ringing out.

We'll see now what Malleable can do against an Industrial Team when they meet Link Belt the 28th at Belmont Park.

CANDID CAMERA SHOTS

But where there's a foe, there's a friend. Most of the time. Out on the lot of Twentieth Century Fox studios, at the moment, is Eddie Cantor, currently starring in "All Baba Goes to Town."

Unless judgement is cockeyed, Cantor is one of the few fellows on top who haven't forgotten the man and woman at the bottom of the ladder.

"All my life I've been a minority person," he said in an interview this week. "Jews, Negroes, Catholics, horses—stretch it out as far as you please—we're all in a spot because the great majority is against us. The envy that exists among people who are not our friends blinds them to the fact that we have talent and they try to minimize what we do have to offer."

Wherever you see Cantor, in a picture, as a rule, you see a great number of Negroes.

This production of "All Baba Goes to Town" possibly tops them all and even Mr. WINCHELL admits that the Harlem sequence "will likely top the film."

MATTIE JANE, ANNA LOUISE and VIRGINIA PETERS are the screaming trio by which any audience could be entertained. Together weighing close to a ton, they dance expertly. So lightly you look for the invisible wire that must be giving them a lift. But it isn't. Their harmonizing is pure delight and if your sense of beauty runs any way toward the thyroid, you'll agree with me; they're beautiful. Out at Fox, Eddie Cantor claims them as his proteges, sees that their shots in the current Arabian farce do justice to all their talents.

FIREMAN, SPARE THAT ROUGE!

You may never know how versatile a man is by the paycheck he draws. Instance: LUCKY STEWART, one of the crack firemen at the 34th street station, is, by day, makeup artist in the make-up department of FOX STUDIOS. All the (Central avenue) Arabians in "All Baba" come to Lucky for their beards and grease paint. "The love of movie work never seems to leave one, no matter what his occupation."

I've had the bug since I worked in "White Hunter" and "Samson and Delilah" (he starred in this). EDDIE ABDO, Arabian costume designer and makeup artist said that Lucky is as good at makeup as he is in climbing ladders to "save that child."

OFF RECORD
This is strictly confidential and if you tell anybody I told you, I'll swear you're the biggest fib out of jail: SAMMY LEE, ace dance director, buzzed me this week that a certain studio is considering making an all-colored musical: in technicolor.

"Colored players in films are definitely on the upgrade," he said. "In the past year the realization that talent is what the public wants and pays for has hit every studio. The Negro has talent and it must be recognized. In two pictures on which I worked within 8 weeks, we used big ensembles of colored players. From 'Hallelujah' through 'Showboat.' 'Singing the Blues,' down to 'Wrangler's' 'Vogues' you have evidence of the dramatic and musical talent of the Negro player."

THAT MAN IS HERE AGAIN
What CAY SPOT where Hollywood goes black and tan—way off the beaten path—protected by its proximity to a CHURCH is headed for a little visit from the boys at Newton street station? "Flying Down to REO" is the way the fatfoots may announce their raid provided there are enough movie stars in the nest to let the coppers get their names in the papers.

PLEASE, MR. DANCER!
WHAT hellfire from what Delaware multi-million family blew in on her way to Honolulu and turned the town upside down for EARL DANCER. Yeah. That one who bought the cream-colored Cadillac for the brown boy in Harlem.

Wins Prize for Tenth Time

Receiving a cash award recently as a prize for the most attractive yard in Haughville marked the tenth consecutive year that Mrs. Lillian Hunt Wilburn, 970 Pershing avenue, has won such a prize. The award was made by the City Beautification Bureau. The main factor in making the award, the Bureau said, was the total absence of fire hazards. The Bureau first began the awards twelve years ago.

LYNCHING AND STATE RIGHTS

(From the Bristol, Va. Herald Courier, Aug. 2, 1937)

Some two months ago a mob took two Negroes from jail in a Mississippi town, carried them into the country, tied them to trees and seared their flesh with a blowtorch. One of the Negroes died under torture and the other was shot to death. As we recall, neither of these victims of mob brutality was accused of a capital crime.

The State's Attorney-General of Mississippi, acting under instructions from the Governor, instituted impeachment proceedings against the Sheriff of the county in which this outrage was committed, charging him with neglect of duty, cowardly conduct, and perhaps connivance with the mobsters. The officer was acquitted, but although he stated that he recognized some of the members of the mob, nothing further has been done.

Some two weeks since a mob took two Negroes from jail in Florida, carried them into the country and shot them to death. Neither of them had committed a crime for which death is or should be the penalty. The Sheriff seemed not to know much about the incident or to be seriously disturbed by it. The Governor of Florida said the killing of these Negroes was not a lynching, but murder, but so far as known no effort has been made to find the lynchers or murderers.

A dispatch from Statesville, N. C., says a crowd of about 125 white men rode into that town in thirty automobiles early yesterday, surrounded the county jail and demanded that Sheriff John White

"Don't get evil," warns Mr. D. "I was only showing the lady what a nice little town we have East of Main street."

NICE BIT

GUS ROBINSON, six-foot hand-some Nubian, is cast as Eddie Cantor's slave in "All Baba Goes to Town."

Moore turn over a Negro prisoner accused of assaulting a white woman. The crowd disbanded after the Sheriff took three of the men inside the jail and convinced them that the prisoner they wanted was not there. He had been spirited away to an undisclosed jail.

A lynching was averted at Statesville because precautionary measures had been taken for the protection of the prisoner sought by the mob. Probably most mob murders could be averted in any Negro arrested for almost any offense in some sections of the South is in danger of the mob, the responsible police authorities do not take steps to safeguard the lives of such prisoners and give them their day in court. Yet that is a part of their sworn duty.

The Senate has before it an anti-lynching bill which has already passed the House. Opposition to this measure comes mostly from the South, the section of the country in which nearly all of the mob murders occur and which should welcome Federal aid in the suppression of mob lawlessness. Prospects now are that legislative action on this bill will not be completed by a Congress confronted with other important measures and impatient to adjourn, but there also are prospects that if it fails of passage at this session it will be passed at the next session.

Protests that a Federal anti-lynching law would infringe the rights of the States have ceased to be impressive in the face of continued mob outrages and the failure of the State to uphold their laws and punish those crimes.

BEAUTY and ROMANCE
by Marie Downing
DIRECTOR, LARIEUSE BEAUTY FOUNDATION

The Larieuse Beauty Foundation was established by the Godeffroy Manufacturing Company to study methods of preserving women's natural beauty, and to make the results of this research available to the public.

THE GLORY OF LOVE

My mail this morning brings a forthright question from a young lady. "Why don't you write more about romance?"

That is a very good point. We have been so busy talking about beauty aids that we have almost forgotten the heart interest. Beauty—regardless of its importance—is, after all, only skin deep, while romance throbs in the deepest fibre of us all.

We have been brought up on the doctrine that the bride's month is June—that most weddings take place in that month of blossoms. This is indeed a pretty thought, but it is not altogether accurate. Statistics tell us that June does not outstrip all other months, and that as a matter of fact it is rather average month. December, incidentally, stands near the top of the months for cupid's successes. And so in discussing romance at this late summer season, we are not, after all, getting too far out of step with tradition.

A young man recently wrote me that he was tremendously interested in a pretty girl, but that he was having none too great success. The girl, he said—and his letter was almost poetic—was tall and beautiful, with straight and shining black hair, beautiful hands, and a great talent for wearing clothes. This young man had enjoyed one date with the lady, but had been given varying excuses when later he wanted to see her. He suspected that another young man had poisoned her against him, and he wanted my advice as to what he should do.

I am not in the business of writing advice to young people regarding their affairs of the heart, but in this case I just hope that the young man has the wisdom to send the girl a nice present of flowers, candy, or some other trivial gift to show his sincere interest. If she is as fine as he thinks, she certainly should be gracious enough to thank him the next time he calls or whenever they meet on the street. Then he would have the opportunity to ask again for a date under more favorable circumstances.

These summer nights make romance a symphonic part of virtually all our hours of recreation. Nature in summer dress fosters love and appreciation of beauty, and the soul that possesses neither of these strings is dead indeed.

It was with this thought in mind that I named my column, "Beauty and Romance." One is sadly crippled without the other, for beauty inspires romance and romance springs full blown from beauty, whether it be in the natural wonders about us or in the face of one we love.

You will pardon me for hoping that my lists on the subject of beauty lead my readers on from beauty to romance, for such fulfillment means unparalleled happiness to you.

WHITE SAYS "BLACK HAS GROWN VASTLY ON RACIAL ISSUES"

NEW YORK, Aug. 27. (CNA)—Walter White, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, this week praised the new Supreme Court Justice, Hugo L. Black, as genuinely concerned with raising the country's living standards and as having developed a liberal tendency lately on racial questions.

In a telegram congratulating the Alabama Senator, White said: "I for one am confident that in all issues which may come before you as an Associated Justice of the Supreme Court, especially issues affecting the rights of Negroes and other minorities, you will confound your critics by taking not only a liberal stand by making the broadest interpretation of the due process and equal justice clauses of the Constitution."

White said Black has "grown vastly" on racial questions recently, but disagreed sharply with the Senator's stand on the Wagner-Van Nuys anti-lynching bill.

"I shall be very interested in observing Mr. Black's attitude when the first test case of this bill comes before him," White said.

The N. A. A. C. P. secretary did not appear greatly impressed by attacks on Black on the Klan issue, though he said it should have a salutary effect on Southern seekers of national office.

Choice Protested

Black's appointment to the Court was protested in a resolution adopted this week by the convention of the National Medical Association in St. Louis. Dr. Roscoe C. Giles of Chicago, president, declared the appointment was inimical to the country at large and to the American Negro in particular. About 200 delegates attended the convention.

MRS. GRACE FUQUA

Funeral services were held last week at the home for Mrs. Grace Fuqua, 55, living in West 13th street, who died in Atlantic City, N. J., at the home of her sister.

Mrs. Fuqua was the mother of four children, William Fuqua, Charles Fuqua, Mrs. Mildred Bradford, and Lee Fuqua. One son, Charles, is a member of the Int. Sports, a famous guitar trio of New York, N. Y., and came to Indianapolis for the services. Jacobs Brothers had charge of the service with burial in Crown Hill.

She is survived by the children and one sister.

Pickets Wear Badges in Virginia

These two laundry workers are on picket duty on the grounds of the Williamsburg steam laundry, Norfolk, Va., one of three Peninsula laundries whose operations are affected by a strike of 130 Negro employees which started last week. They seek an increase in wages and improved working conditions. The pickets are shown with a badge to designate their function.

CHICAGO HOUSING LABELLED "DEPLORABLE" AS WAR OPENS

CHICAGO, Aug. 27. (By Leon Lewis for ANP)—Two hundred thousand Negroes packed into a South Side area of Chicago designated to house less than one hundred thousand, presents a housing situation unparalleled in any community in the United States. Fast growing populations throughout the east and middle west have necessitated great increases in the number of inhabitants per block area. But with this, in Chicago's southside, have developed inadequacy, deplorable living conditions, unsanitation and low standard environmental effects.

The factors through which this situation has brewed are many, and yet, when boiled down shows very plainly that the Negro has been exploited and pressure influences are evidenced from a political and economic and social viewpoint.

Although the claim by the majority of those who would suggest the responsible effects, is that it is purely an economic one. In our civilization, political, social, and economic influences are so interwoven that one cannot be a subject of participation without involving the other two, with politics being the more forceful of the three, yet most times the least discernable.

Several facts give more credence to this so far as Negroes are concerned. First, it is undisputedly through political endeavor that any recognizable power is demonstrative of Negroes en masse. Second political pressure is the only general element sought to build up or tear down this power. And third, that Negroes use politics as a means of economic and social build-up, instead of making it a result of economic and social prestige.

The housing problem is a social one, but its solution must come from political influence, which, in reality, control economic trends affecting Negroes. But first, let us look into the situation as it exists throughout this section. In an area, practically adjacent to the 'loop' and Lake Michigan, that has been said to be one of the most favored residential sections of the

D.M.S.—Why is it so hard for me to get along with my husband? Are we not misnamed? I am a constant reader of your column and enjoy it thoroughly.

Ans.: You are not misnamed. The big trouble in your family is that both you and your husband are as "stubborn as two mules". Neither one of you will admit when you're wrong and neither of you will give in to the other one as much. A little more broadmindedness on the part of both will spell happiness for you.

M.L.—Will I be able to make the trip I am planning for next year?

Ans.: My crystal reveals a journey for you around Christmas time. You will have a most enjoyable trip and come back with new pep and vigor.

G.E.W.—Can you tell me why my mother-in-law hasn't answered my letters?

Ans.: Your mother-in-law doesn't intend to answer your letters. You will have to approach her in some other manner.

S.M.B.—Does my common-law husband love me as he says he does? He says he loves me so he hates to hurt my feelings.

Ans.: He's right... his interest in you is sincere. He would have you for his legal mate but he's "scared to death" of marriage. In the course of time he will see things your way and the preacher will unite you in holy matrimony.

T.L.M.—I am a little boy five years old. My mother and father separated before I was born. Will you please tell me why he won't help my good mother with me please as my mother has been down for 3 years?

Ans.: Your daddy's people are against your mother my son and this appears to be the indirect cause why he doesn't take care of you as a father should. You stick by your mother Sonny and some day your daddy will come to his senses and take good care of both of you.

E.P.A.—The lady I work for lost a night dress. I wish you would tell me what became of it?

Ans.: This "nighty" appears to have been lost in the wash. I shouldn't take this seriously for she has already forgotten about the subject and most certainly does not suspect or accuse you. Whoever handles the wash should be more careful about it than they are.

D.M.N.—I have a child 12 years old. I wasn't able to take care of her when she was two so I let a friend of mine take her. She still has her. Don't you think if I were to go to her and ask her they would give her to me? Do you think I would have to go to court to get her?

Ans.: I sure do. They love your baby and wouldn't part with her for all the money in the world. For the child's sake it would be better if you let things stand as they are now. Wait until she gets a little older and can choose for herself. Your little girl has the best of care.

I.B.H.—Tell me if I will have any more children?

Ans.: I think you will... one more.

E.J.P.—I am a constant reader of your column and enjoy it to the highest. I am a very lonely girl. Don't like fast life and I'm wondering if that's the reason why I don't have the company of male admirers? Will the right one come by some day?

Ans.: No, Sister he won't. If you want a man you have got to learn how to get out and mingle with them. I advise you to be a whole lot more sociable with the men than you have been accustomed to. Gals that go around with a face and smile as cold as a "Frigidair" are mighty apt to wind up old maids. Get out and enjoy life a bit.

BROWN COUNTY STATE PARK APPEALS YEAR ROUND

Each fall a mecca for thousands of tourists because of the special beauty it possesses at that season. Brown County state park, nevertheless, has many attractions which appeal to the visitor throughout the year.

Established in 1929, and located on Roads 46 and 135, near Nashville, the park encompasses four thousand acres in the heart of Indiana's southern hill country and offers a variety of scenery for the nature-lover. Brown County's beautiful setting can be enjoyed by the visitor in various ways. There are miles of bridle paths, hiking trails and automobile roads, which wind through the park, inviting exploration. There are also three look-out towers at appropriate points throughout the park, from which the visitor can obtain extensive views of Brown County's picturesque wooded hills.

Other major attractions of the park include a modern swimming pool and bath house, tennis courts, an archery range, an outdoor amphitheatre, and picnic and camping areas. Appetizing meals and comfortable sleeping quarters are available at the Martin Lodge, which is constructed from native stone and weathered timbers in keeping with the rustic surroundings. The twenty or more cottages, scattered in the adjoining wooded areas, afford good living quarters and excellent meals.

The lodge is located on "Kin Hubbard Ridge," named in honor of the men who introduced and made famous Brown County's most distinguished character—Abe Martin. The cottages also bear the names of personages familiar to all followers of Kin Hubbard, such as, "Tell Binkley," "Tawney Apple," "Uncle Niles Turner," etc.

Brown County state park is an ideal place for a family vacation. The cottages are designed to accommodate from four to eight persons, and there are attractive picnic areas in which tables and benches are available with outdoor and shelter ovens, shelter houses, and supplies of pure drinking water and sanitary facilities ready for use.

Adjoining the park is the 11,000-acre game preserve where deer, elk, buffalo, bear, fox, raccoon, skunk, owls, hawks, quail, pheasants and many other species of birds and animals are displayed. Within the preserve are two artificial lakes, shelter houses, and the 1,500-acre area in which archery is permitted to hunt during the open season.

POLICE LAUNCH

were arrested for liquor law violation at 333 West Maryland street, by excise and city police who found 66 bottles of beer and one quart and a half of whiskey.

Finding a quart or more of alcohol at the home of Lyman Parker, (white) 1346 South Pershing avenue, caused Parker's arrest by police.

Besides being charged with beverage violations, Adam Coleman, 30 years old, and Stella Pryor, 30 years old, both of 2012 Columbia avenue, face additional charges in police court of assault and battery following a raid on their home by police. The officers said that they found a quart bottle of whiskey at the Columbia avenue address.

Janet Hatfield (white), living at 862 Walnut street, was arrested for violation of the beverage acts, when they saw Beas Means (white) 58, 624 East St. Clair, coming from the rear of Hatfield's home with a bottle of whiskey. They also arrested John Woodson, 32 years old, living at 1501 Yandes street, for having a .38-calibre revolver in his possession.

In a terse statement to the Indianapolis Recorder, Michael P. Morrissey, chief of police said that all joints, speakeasies and dives must go, inferring that arrests will be made wherever it is deemed necessary.

"If any one phones or comes to police headquarters and says that they know where any of these law violations are being made and we have reason to believe what they say we will make an immediate investigation," Chief Morrissey said. "And if we find proof we will prosecute immediately."

Morrissey said that it would be better for the arresting officers if the complaining witness would make a signed statement as to just what he saw and ended by saying, "The word alone of any citizen is evidence enough to cause an immediate and thorough investigation in any part of the city."

"And yet you want another crack at him?" I asked.

"Yeah, I do. I'm not saying I'll beat him, but I'd give him a whiff of a fight. I thought I was right for that Chicago bout, but I wasn't. I needed a couple of scraps under my belt."

Bradstock was reminded that Farr was a guy who waded in throwing punches.

"He'll get cured of that in a hurry," Jim said. "You tell him for me he'd better not try it."

supposed to take place sometime this week. Some sort of an announcement will be made after the fight between Louis and Farr to night.

Max, who has always been a hard nut for promoters to crack, was whipped into line by Mike Jacobs. Little Caesar of the boxing game Jacobs told Max, he must either fight in October or never. The German, with an eye for more money desired to tangle with the champion next summer.

Joe Louis is entering the final tonight, at Yankee stadium, as the youngest holder of the heavyweight crown. He also is the first fighter to keep his word to be a "fighting champ."

Louis, who in the past always named the round he expected to take his opponent has consistently refused to do so this time. As in time nears Louis is the same stone-faced lad who beat the crown off Jimmy Braddock's head this summer. The champ's wife, Marva, will not see the champ defend his title for the first time.

Farr, who has been a highly nervous type of individual since lending, promises to give Joe a new style of fighting. Louis, who has been warned as what to look for from Farr, continues to keep his outward emotions well hidden from the sports writers.

Joe has learned. Under the astute guidance of trainer Blackburn, he has used every fight as a springboard from which to correct some brought his reelection here recently at Moderator. He has raised $5,000 for denominational causes this year and more than $1,500 for the August sessions.

The membership has shown a tremendous growth and many new bodies representing the State Association. All Association debts are being rapidly and promptly liquidated, which is assurance of definite progress. The organizations are looking forward to the greatest meeting of the association in 1938 at New Orleans. The cooperation of every pastor is needed to make this the greatest session in the history of Indiana Baptists.

The following statement was made by Rev. Saunders:

"I take this moment to express my greatest appreciation for the loyal support and help of our many friends, including our local church, Shiloh Baptist with their wonderful deacon board, who have been more than loyal and faithful to our trust. The fellowship of the Baptist Ministers Alliance has contributed much to our success. Each member of the local church has manifested definite pride in carrying out visions of their aggressive leader. We hope for them and the cause of Christ an enjoyable harvest. I feel certain that delegates will return fired with inspiration from the National meeting and will bring much to their church program, friends, and community at large."

Others attending the convention are: Fred Washington, Daisy Cowherd, Susie Thomas, Allie Barton, Minnie King, Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Weeden, Mrs. F. F. Young, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Humphrey, Mrs. Anna Allen, Mrs. Pauline Woods, Mrs. High, Mrs. Cooksey, Mrs. Mae Garrett and Mrs. Bertha Kemp Fletcher.

One stray dog and another one owned by a taxpayer bit John Hayes, 13, and Dorothy Simmons, 336 West Twenty-sixth street, the first part of the week. The Hayes boy was brought to the hospital by his father who said that they were at Twenty-seventh and Roach streets when a stray dog bit his son. He was treated and sent home. When police found out that Mattie Houston, 25, 834 West Twenty-sixth street, had license for the dog that bit the Simmons woman they arrested her for harboring a vicious dog.

Robert Green Files Divorce Suit

Robert Green, 358 West Twenty-seventh street, has filed for a divorce against his wife, Mary, in Superior Courtroom three. His attorney is W. S. Henry.

In the complaint, Mr. Green charged that his wife was cross and irritable, and constantly nagged him. The complaint said that his wife would not consider the possibility of them ever having children. When she found that she was to become a mother, the husband's complaint alleges, she steadfastly refused to perform her duties as a wife and prospective mother should.

The Greens were married in 1934 and separated in 1935. Mr. Green is employed as a valet.

head and shoulders when the automobile he was driving crashed into that of Rev. Arthur W. Womack, 50, 1926 North Capitol avenue, which was parked at the Reverend's home. Kelley was treated at the City Hospital for his injuries and arrested for drunkenness. He is to be tried in police court August 31st.

Ella McMaheron, 24, 1034 Fayette street, was treated at the City Hospital for a broken rib. The McMaheron woman said that she fell down some stairs at her home causing the injury.

Falling out of a tree which he climbed, Donald Curtis, 13, 1809 Alford street, landed on an alleyway and severely cut his left arm. He was rendered first-aid by Officers Welch and Wallace and given further treatment at the City Hospital.

A pebble that was lying in the path of his bicycle wheels caused the fracture of Robert Hogan's hip, 2248 Yandes street. The 60-year-old man said that he was riding at Sutherland and Lake Erie tracks when he struck the pebble that caused him to lose his balance.

Little Milton Patterson, 2, 825 Blake street, was treated at the City Hospital for an injury to his nasal track suffered when he got an object in his nostrils while playing in the yard. He was brought to the hospital by his mother, Myrtle.

Striking his head on a slide while swimming, Joseph Rice, 10, an inmate of the Orphans' Home, was cut over the right eye while swimming at the Douglas swimming pool. Hospital attaches notified the Orphans' Home after giving him treatment.

A stick of wood that flew up while he was cutting it with an ax caused a slight injury to Francis Smith's thumb on the left hand, this week. He was sent home with his sister, Katherine, after being treated at the City Hospital.

Allien Lyons, 17, saw a police squad skid to a stop at Elder street and rushed to the door to see what was the matter. She fell off the front porch and cut her second finger on the right hand. Police officers had her treated for the injury.

Thornton Horsley, 32, 2814 Sheffield avenue, cut his left hand on a lighting fixture while washing the walls of the William H. Block company, where he is employed. He was treated and sent home.

One stray dog and another one owned by a taxpayer bit John Hayes, 13, and Dorothy Simmons, 336 West Twenty-sixth street, the first part of the week. ## LOCAL SHRINE REPRESENTED AT 37TH MEET

The thirty-seventh annual session of the Imperial Council of Nobles of the Mystic Shrines closed at Cincinnati last week; John H. Murphy, Imperial potentate, presided.

A harmonious session was held with an increase in membership of 108 members over last year. Approximately 2000 persons from all parts of the United States attended the sessions. In competitive drills which was won by Columbus, Washington and New York were the other entrants.

Delegates from the local Persian Temple, number 46, included G. H. Gayhart and Mrs. Mary Jones, D. McWilliams, from Deborah court number 24. Others from this council were: Nobles, Robert Stapleton, Samuel Stapleton, John Anderson, Edward McWilliams, W. E. Jones, R. O. Frazier, J. C. Dawson, C. F. Green, Manuel Collins.

Officers elected included: John H. Murphy, Jr., succeeded himself as Imperial potentate, for another year, Raynor Jackson, New York, deputy Imperial potentate; Raymond King, Evansville, Ind., chief rabbi; I. P. Johnson, Cleveland, O., Asst. rabbi; Thomas H. Williams, illustrious recorder and Charles Freeman, Washington, D. C., treasurer.

The convention was a joint one consisting of the Twenty-seventh Annual Sessions Imperial Court Daughters of Isis; Fourth Beineal session Grand Encampment Knights Templar; (P.H.A. North and South America; International conference Grand Masters and Past Grand Masters and Grand secretaries; International conference Grand Chapters, Royal Arch, Masons Ladies' Bodies of Adoptive Rites.

JOHN L. TO JOE

22 rounds at Coney Island. Jeffries continued fighting until 1902 and then in 1905 announced his retirement.

That left the heavyweight class without a head and on July 3, 1905, Jim Jeffries refused Jeffries, Marvin Hart knocked out Jack Root in 12 rounds at Reno, Nev., and was generally recognized as the champion. On Feb. 23, 1906, Tommy Burns beat Hart to a 20-round decision and was hailed as the champion. Six months later Burns made his first defense of his title against Jim Flynn and won by a knockout in 15 rounds.

Jack Johnson was the next to move into the picture when at Sydney, Australia, on Dec. 25, 1906, Johnson beat Burns in 14 rounds. A few fights followed by Johnson but it was against Stanley Ketchell that his first real defense of the title took place. That was at Colma, Cal., on Oct. 16, 1906, of nine months and 21 days after he became the champion.

Nearly six years later or on April 15, 1913, at Havana, Cuba, Johnson staked his title against Jess Willard and was beaten in 26 rounds. The fight against Frank Moran in the old Madison Square Garden, which took place a little more than 11 months after his Cuba conquest, was really Willard's only defense of his crown until he met Jack Dempsey at Toledo, O., to lose his title in three rounds. That was on July 4, 1919.

Dempsey's first defense of the championship took place one year, five months and two days later when he met Billy Mike at Benson Harbor, Mich. The old Manassas Mauler held onto his honors until he met Gene Tunney at Philadelphia on Sept. 23, 1926, when he lost a ten-round decision. Eleven months and 29 days later Gene defended the title against Dempsey and after fighting Tom Heeney, whom he beat in 11 rounds, in 1928, he retired.

Again the field was open for a champion and the governors of boxing designated that the winner of a fight between Max Schmeling and Jack Sharkey would be recognized as the champion. Schmeling won on a foul in four rounds in New York City on June 12, 1930, and Max's first defense came in Cleveland on July 3, 1931, one year and 21 days after he won the title against Bill Stribling. Max won by a knockout in the fifteenth round. Then on June 21, 1932, Schmeling again met Jack Sharkey and lost a fifteen-round decision.

One year and eight days later Sharkey staked his claim against Primo Carnera and was knocked out in six rounds.

Max Baer was the next to become the champion, when on June 14, 1934, he stopped Carnera in eleven rounds and five months later, Max defended his holding against King Levinsky in Chicago, Ill. On June 13, 1935, Baer lost his title to Jim Braddock at the Long Island City Bowl.

Jim held on to the title for two years and nine days before he met Joe Louis in Chicago and lost in eight rounds. And now comes Joe, who will be a champion just two months and four days when he squares off with Tommy Farr of Wales at the Yankee Stadium.

Gary Knifings; Alleged Hoodlum Held

GARY, Ind., Aug. 27.—One hundred knives, most of them of the switchblade variety were seized by police this week in central district activities, including two men suspected with handiwork.

Police said that George Allen, 36, 1731 Washington street, had been identified as one of three men who held up and robbed Isiah Lyons, 1908 Massachusetts street, with knives as he sat in the back seat of an automobile.

Another man William Holden, 38, 1645 Jefferson street, was arrested as one of a gang of strong-arm gangsters. He is charged specifically with robbing Albert Johnson 1730 Tyler street, of $48.65 by strongarm methods.

A move to end slashing and stabbing in the central district prompted the knife lifting act. No arrests were made but officials warned that arrests would probably follow if knives can be classified as weapons. Knives confiscated were of the long blade variety capable of causing serious or fatal wounds.

RACE LAD GETS UNUSUAL POST

(By JOHN B. STEWART)

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 27. (Spt.)—The Adult Education Division of the local Board of Education has appointed Goode Samuel Clark, Jr., to the position of instructor among the inmates of the Hartford County Jail. This is the first time in the history of the state that a Negro has been given such an appointment.

Mr. Clark is a graduate of Talladega College and holds a M. A. degree from the Hartford Seminary Foundation. During the past two years he has been teaching psychology as part of the new Adult Educational program of this city at the Federal College and has also been actively engaged in recreational and social work in the city. He is the son of Reverend Good as Clark, pastor of the Mount Olive Baptist Church of this city.

BEAUTY WITH THE FOREIGN STAMP

Speaking of foreign models, what do you think of these? They're not exactly streamlined, but they seem to have plenty of Elinor Glyn's "it". In the center is Mlle. Monique Cazalan, of Guadeloupe, elected "Miss France Overseas Queen of Beauty", last week. The other two choice bits of femininity are, left, "Miss Martinique" and, right, Miss Gujano, of the Devils Island, a protectorate of France.

The Cabin Kids have been appearing with Billy Rose's "Show of Shows" in Dallas, Texas.

Postal Convention Urges Race Progress

(By PERCY R. HINES)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 23. —Completing 24 years of continuous activity toward betterment of the Postal Service in general and the solution of problems of Negro postal workers in particular, the National Alliance of Postal Employees closed its ninth biennial convention here Saturday, having been in session since August 16th. The assembly opened Monday evening with public exercises at Tindley Temple, South Broad and Fitzwater Streets, where many dignitaries took part on the program, among whom were Mayor S. Davis Wilson, of Philadelphia; Hon. Joseph F. Gallagher, Postmaster; Rev. D. W. Henry, pastor of Tindley Temple; Jerry O. Gilliam, National President of the Alliance; Hon. Russell Allen, Deputy Coroner; Commissioner Joseph Rainey of the Pennsylvania Boxing Commission; Mrs. Robert E. Harrison, National President of the Women's Auxiliary to the Alliance, and many leaders of other postal groups and of civic and educational movements. The Gilbert Anderson Memorial Symphony Orchestra furnished the musical program. Harold L. Pilgrim, Philadelphia Postal leader, was master of ceremonies.

Business sessions of the convention were held at the Y. W. C. A. 1605 Catherine Street, beginning Tuesday morning. In his address to the assembly, President Jerry O. Gilliam of Norfolk, Va., pointed out many accomplishments realized through the efforts of the body during the past two years in connection with promotions and assignments in the postal service. Mrs. G. N. T. Gray, Washington, D. C., President; Mrs. A. G. Spears, Sumter, S. C., Vice President; Mrs. Grand Adams, Atlanta, Ga., Secretary, and Mrs. Heywood Gant, Detroit, Michigan, Treasurer.

Meeting in conjunction with the Alliance was the Women's Auxiliary, headed by Mrs. Anna Mae Harrison of Chicago, Ill. The outstanding feature of the ladies' session was the continuation on a more substantial basis the granting of scholarships and cash awards to high school students. Officers elected for the next biennial period are: Mrs. G. N. T. Gray, Washington, D. C., President; Mrs. A. G. Spears, Sumter, S. C., Vice President; Mrs. Grand Adams, Atlanta, Ga., Secretary, and Mrs. Heywood Gant, Detroit, Michigan, Treasurer.

Will Hodge felt the pain and anxiety in his friends voice and would have given much to comfort him. He answered so low that Jim had to lean forward to hear. "Jim it takes God to determine our end. No human may do so. We were taught in the old school to hope as long as there is life. Let us do all we know for her and leave the rest to Him."

Jim closed his eyes for a moment. The lines of pain etched themselves deeper in his face. He said "I love my wife so that if I have to give her up life will their people, and to patronize businesses which are willing to employ our people.

The election of officers for the next two years was a deadlock for several hours on Friday as five candidates were in the race for the Presidency. Jerry O. Gilliam of Norfolk, Va., who has headed the organization for the past four years was defeated in the final ballot by Lafayette F. Ford of St. Louis, Mo. G. N. T. Gray, Washington, D. C., Attorney R. L. Ball, Indianapolis, Ind., and Harold L. Pilgrim, Philadelphia, Pa., were the other aspirants. Gilliam, after his defeat, made a motion for the unanimous election of Ford, which was carried, and pledged hearty support to the new head. Other officers elected were as follows: Alvin W. Bryan, Atlanta, Ga., Vice President; Leon M. Anderson, Washington, D. C., Secretary; Robert E. Hutton, New Orleans, La., Treasurer; and Percy R. Hines, Chicago, Ill., Editor of The Postal Alliance, official monthly magazine of the organization. More than 70 branches of the body located in as many cities throughout the United States were represented in the con-

fab. Meeting in conjunction with the Alliance was the Women's Auxiliary, headed by Mrs. Anna Mae Harrison of Chicago, Ill. The outstanding feature of the ladies' session was the continuation on a more substantial basis the granting of scholarships and cash awards to high school students. NEW YORK CITY, Aug. 27. ### Pepsi-Cola Ice Cream Soda Most Cooling Drink

Some months ago a New Yorker fishing the Neversink stream, in the New York Catskills, wanted to refresh himself with an ice cream soda.

As this town lacked the facilities for purchasing carbonated gas tanks for fountain use, the general store merchant informed the fisherman he could give him some ice cream in a glass of Pepsi-Cola.

The drink pleased the New York newspaperman and fisherman to such an extent that he, and his associates promoted its use, and today the Pepsi-Cola Company reports there are more than 100,000 Pepsi-Cola ice cream soda fountains in Metropolitan New York territory. Try this drink the next time you are in a store, or at a stand that has Pepsi-Cola.

Refused FHA Loan; House Too Good

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., Aug. 27. —Because his home is valued at twelve thousand dollars and is located (because of segregation) in a neighborhood where the homes range in value from one thousand to twenty-five hundred dollars, Atty. Frank N. Summers of this city has been refused a loan by the Federal Housing Administration.

Mr. Summers has taken up the matter with the N. A. A. C. P. in New York which in turn wrote Clyde L. Powell, assistant deputy administrator of the FHA. Mr. Powell cites a technical rule of the FHA relating to the value of surrounding property in determining loans.

While the FHA may be technically correct, the N. A. A. C. P. and Mr. Summers are insisting that it is not the fault of Negroes if they

Children Are Guests of Legion Post 107

The Y. M. C. A. Post No. 107 of the American Legion brought the colored children from the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Knightstown to Indianapolis last Sunday for a week's vacation. These children have been living in the home of members of the Post during the past week and have been shown the interesting places of the city.

Post 107 has been a special sponsor of these children for several years. This is the third year that it has brought them to Indianapolis for a vacation.

Recently, a radio, some curtains and other furnishings were purchased for the children's cottage by the Post and its Auxiliary. They will make a special pilgrimage to visit these children at Knightstown on Legion Day in September. John L. Byer is child welfare officer and has been in general charge of these activities. He is now in search of other children of soldiers or sailors in need of a good home that they may be placed at Knightstown.

The Y. M. C. A. Post devotes most of its time to welfare work among children and to charity. This is why it has maintained a baseball team in the Junior League of the American Legion for the past two years and also why it offered its services to the Pioneer House during its big Country Fair and rendered such valuable assistance to this worthy charitable enterprise. It participated in the big Boy Scout Stadium Drive carried on this summer by the 12th District of the American Legion and made a substantial contribution to the erection of a stadium for the Marion County Boy Scouts.

The Post took part in the big parade in Terre Haute last Monday under the leadership of its commander, Dr. J. H. Ward. Other officers of the Post this year are Coleman Hawkins, vice commander; Robert O. Johnson, vice commander; E. W. Diggs, adjutant; George E. White, finance officer; Marlon Hansberry, publicity officer; William D. Brooks, historian; James A. Bryant, chaplain; R. K. Smith, athletics officer; Dr. H. H. Murray, assistant athletics officer; Edward S. Gaillard, service officer.

BANKETT Says:

The Future of the Negro

Editor's Note—The author of this series, being published exclusively in The Indianapolis Recorder, is himself a former newspaper man; for years he published the biggest little paper in the world. He is an outstanding economist and a political commentator worthy of hearing because he has something to say.

Since emancipation in 1863, gigantic efforts have been put forth to bring the Negro into full enjoyment of all the privileges guaranteed to citizens of the United States by our constitutions. Billions of dollars have been expended on education. Laws have been passed in the interest of the Negro, and court decisions have been rendered favorable to the race. Still the Negro is far from his goal, and seems to be in a hopeless condition at this time.

The reason for the Negro's present condition rests upon the fact that, with the exception of Booker T. Washington, no Negro had a plan or a program wherein the Negro was to do for himself. All other leaders of the race placed the burden of the Negro race upon the law and court decisions passed upon that law. To that end, the false leaders sought civil right legislation and most of the northern states have such laws upon their statute books. These laws have been upheld by the courts of the various states, and have been sustained by the United States Supreme Court. Although we have the laws and the decision of the courts sustaining the law, the American Negro finds the public policy defeats the decision of the courts, for the simple reason that one inherent right of all men is that of choosing his own associates, and any law passed which would nullify such a right cannot be enforced.

The only hope the American Negro has to achieve the recognition of equality with the other groups in American, and to be allowed all the privileges for which he seeks, will be gained by his own efforts. Booker T. Washington knew that if the Negro was to gain the respect of the rest of mankind, he would have to follow the program of all races, namely, seeking a foothold in the soil, first, and from this foundation build a superstructure of culture and attainments that would attract the attention of the rest of mankind. There is nothing new about the Washington program and Mr. Washington did not claim to give birth to a new idea. White philanthropists contributed millions of dollars to build and maintain Tuskegee to the end that the Negro would have the necessary training to carry on; but Mr. Washington and his program was defeated by Professor DuBois of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, an organization composed of intellectuals who can solve problems in the abstract, but who have no concrete foundation upon which to build.

All the law and court decisions can do for the Negro has been accomplished. Henceforth, he must retrace his steps and start at the beginning. All agitators must be brushed aside. He must be taught to respect the achievements of the dominant race, and to emulate them. He must come to know that the exalted position of the race is due to his achievements and not his color. He must realize that complexion of a person's skin and the texture of his hair is not a combination that can invent things. For all things worthwhile that men have achieved, is a result of the brain within his head.

We have no new program to offer the Negro. We can only point to Booker T. Washington, who, as we said, fought to have the Negro adopt the program that has meant the success of all other groups who have risen in the world. The present need of the Negro is by his conduct, to regain the sympathies of the employing class, to the end that when the present depression has passed, he will find employment which will enable him to accumulate sufficient money to start on the road to independence, by the ownership of something which he himself can manage.

Agitation by Negro leaders will never solve the race question; but hard work by the masses will accomplish the desired aim.

wherever white people are refused loans on property in certain neighborhoods, they are free to go to other neighborhoods to build whereas Negroes are restricted to certain areas and if the FHA does not grant them loans to build the kind of homes they wish in these areas, it is racial discrimination, regardless of how technically correct the FHA may be.

Negotiations are going continued to see if some relief cannot be secured for Mr. Summers.

In his letter to the N. A. A. C. P., Mr. Summers asserts that is not the fault of Negroes if they

STATE HOUSING COMMISSION

Hard upon the heels of our congratulations to Dr. Theodore Cable, who has been named by the governor a member of the state housing commission, we beseech the body as a whole to give more than passing consideration to the condition of colored people in the State of Indiana.

Whereas we do not agree that good housing is the necessary panacea for much of what ails this low-income group, the colored people, it can not be successfully denied that proper homes, as one of the cornerstones of our nation, will raise fine social and health psychologies.

The governor in conference with this writer shadow-boxed the housing question, but his appointment of Dr. Cable would appear to indicate a change of heart. Good old governor. If, when the time comes to name a board for the city, the major is tenderly affected also there will be surface evidence that this matter of housing for low-income groups is not so much pretty speech.

This commission has the rare opportunity of smashing home a telling blow in the cause of checking disease, wiping out slums and laying the foundation for a finer more humane home life for "the little man."

COLORED YOUNG DEMOS SCARCE AT CONVENTION HERE

Three visiting Demos and eight of the local variety were listed at the national convention here last week. Questions founded in rumor have demanded if the report of a party bolt because of being ignored is true. Many of the persons expected to be seen there were not in evidence and a quiet canvass has uncovered as many reasons as persons were questioned. Could Dick Heller's cold shoulder and the Governor's frequent refusal to receive "the faithful" have at long last turned them a trifle bitter? Just what was the reason eleven Demos only showed for this festive and important occasion?

IF YOU DON'T CARRY YOUR BURDEN, ANOTHER MUST

Any person who fails for any reason whatsoever to carry his share of a common load thrusts his burden upon the shoulders of another. There are too many examples of this sort of thing: the apathetic business man makes those persons eager to patronize him supply his own enthusiasm and support; the educator's voice is still, never heard in clear-cut tones above the babble of confusion; the minister fails to concern himself deeply and actively in problems of the social good as well as those of the soul; the politician does not squeeze the most for his supporters. Over all there is confusion, a confusion born of attempts of conscientious persons to fill these shortcomings to the best community advantage. They are striving for the common good to carry burdens not rightfully theirs. They are in the position of having leaped into a river to save a drowning man only to have to fight him in order to save his life. United effort on the part of both persons makes for a speedier solution and more effective action. Above all life goes forward, there are inescapable jobs to be done—and if you don't carry your burden, another must.

ATTENTION GOVERNOR TOWNSEND—STATE PARK SEGREGATION

Following other avenues designed to focus his attention on state park segregation, this method is employed to urge Governor Townsend publicly to act with all the dispatch and cunning he is credited with in the recent strikes here. The governor should publicly blast the statement of Mr. Röss of the state conservation department that segregation "might be unfair" but it was "best." Since the conduct of the armed guards who drove colored persons from the beach at Gary was not sanctioned by law, it clearly was a violation thereof and should merit the governor's interest—which interest to date appears to be other than on matters affecting his colored constituency. We ask you to act, Governor, to employ a bit of your attributed fox-like cunning to fulfill some of your pre-election promises. How about some action, Governor?

CRUISING 'ROUND

(By L. J. MARTIN)

SOMETHING is wrong in regard to the labor situation; that is the unemployed or more direct as to the jobs available. For instance, whenever the CIO calls a strike in factories, foundries, or mills, and such places continue to operate during the strike the owners general say that they are operating at or near capacity. Thus we presume in absence of a strike the mills of the country are operating at capacity—this being the case, who is there to employ the millions unemployed. This still being true, then we have recovered from the depression through the spending policy of our government; but here is what happened. With the assistance of technicians, inventors and time study experts, production operators eliminate every possible "man-hour." Every time and labor-saving device was put into service. This is still going on and so long as it does, millions will always be unemployed unless there is a fundamental change in our social set up. The "sop" about other countries getting out of the depression without spending is misleading. If not an outright falsehood—Mussolini spent millions not to capture Ethiopia but to break the depression.

England is spending millions more than we are on housing, millions more than we are on preparing for war or defense and supplying others with war equipment—France is doing likewise, China, and Japan is at this moment giving a concrete example of spending—Russia, there is not and has not been any depression. They started their spending years before the depression and are still at it. So, it is just illogical chatter to say we could have recovered in such good form without some spending—No one else would, the Government had to.

YOU OFTEN hear funny stories about persons you know. Writers and those who call themselves such are often tempted to point such stories funny at the risk of offending the persons involved. However, in most cases they are taken good naturedly and often no offense is committed. Last week I quoted Johnny Walker as saying, "I ain't no good." I was in error; his statement was "I'm not feeling very good." Mr. Walker was not offended. A lot of us have had feeling mornings, too many.

I'LL TAKE THE RISK: A woman after scanning the interior of a trolley car sat down beside me and said, "So this is Africa?" "Why so?" I inquired. "Well, every time I see a picture of a linen suit and a helmet and sun hat, it's lord so and so in Africa; I see one on the back seat." I glanced around and exclaimed—"Why that's Mr. Theodore Smith in his golf outfit." "Humph," murmured the lady, "Africa right on."

THE QUESTION of the week is: Did the Terre Haute American Legion Post entertain the other Legionnaires at Gary or Shelbyville?

Mr. Will H. Porter, just back from Philadelphia reports a fine enjoyable trip, even though his and our friend, R. L. Bailey was among those who ran at the Postal Alliance convention. His greatest difficulty was finding a shave and a meal and says that our business district as such—is just about the best to be found. Awake Indiana Avenue, and express yourself.

Reason Handcuffed By Wild Emotions

(By WM. PICKENS for ANP)

Somebody better take away those war planes away from those Chinese before they hurt each other with them. They aimed at Japanese battleships in the river and hit the heart of their own city, killing Americans, Frenchmen, and Englishmen. The Japanese warships are in the Whangpoo and the great Yangtze. It seems that if the Chinese missed the ships, they might have at least hit the river and not the International Settlement or the hotels far inland.

But what is more interesting, is the further evidence of the bias of American newspapers, and their anti-Japanese feeling, as shown in their blaming Japan because Americans were killed by Chinese bombs which were badly aimed at the Japanese. The papers reason thus: that it is the fault of the Japanese because they had no business being the target of the Chinese,—that since the shots were meant for Japanese, Japan is to be blamed that these shots hit foreign white people. Presumably, if the shots had only hit the Japanese everything would have been all right, — in our newspapers, — and they would be praising the Chinese for their courage and good aim; if the Chinese aim had been good, all the credit would have gone to China, undoubtedly, — but since their aim was bad, all the blame goes to Japan. How logical! The only logic we know so far to match it, comes out of Arkansas: some years ago in the riots of Elaine County in that state, the white mob was chasing Negroes and some of the Negroes ran and hid in a swamp. When the mob surrounded the swamp and began shooting, a member of the mob shot another member dead by mistake. Then, when the six Negroes, wet and wounded, were pulled out of the swamp, they were charged with first degree murder because this white man had been killed by bullets meant for them. They were convicted and all headed for the electric chair. It took a five-year fight, the greatest fight of its kind before the Scottsboro Cases, to get a reversal of the sentence. The mob evidently reasoned this way: If it had not been for those Negroes, the white mobster would not have got killed by accident by his own fellow-mobsters; therefore, the Negroes were to blame, — ergo, guilty. — See: if the Chinese had not been trying to kill Japanese, they would not have killed Americans by mistake, therefore, the Japanese caused the killing and therefore the Japanese rather than the Chinese are guilty of the slaughter.

Really, in these days logic is just what one wants it to be,—just like history, anthropology and pseudo-science. Wilful rationalization is substituted for reasoning, and the mob is stirred. — To test the thing out, — you just let the Japanese aim some bombs at Chinese and hit a hotel full of Americans instead,—can you imagine that you will hear anybody blaming the lucky Chinese for escaping the missiles? No, but you can imagine our jingoos calling for war with Japan, for being so sinful as to hit Americans even by mistake. Verily, in this world do our passions lead us a pace while our intellect leads us an inch. We have built up an anti-Japanese complex; therefore, those Japanese—damned if they do, and damned if they don't.

YOUR HEALTH

... IS YOUR WEALTH ...

TREATMENT OF GALL STONES

The formation of gall stones inside of the gall bladder seems to be brought on by a sluggish condition of this organ either by lack of exercise with over-eating, or by catarrhal inflammation. The majority of cases occur in women and often the characteristic symptoms do not appear until after the age of 40.

The gall bladder acts as a storage vessel to hold the bile formed by the liver until it is needed for digestion, when it is discharged by the gall bladder. Naturally, when there is a sluggish condition, or when the bile becomes thickened, it is more likely that stones will form. Either one stone may develop, or several.

The gall bladder sometimes appears to be able to contain several small stones or one large stone without special symptoms other than attacks of inflammation and slight yellowing of the skin. These patients do not appear perfectly healthy, however, and usually have a feeling of fullness or heaviness in the upper-right hand side. They may not realize they have any trouble until a gall stone tries to pass from the gall bladder by escaping through the duct, when a sharp pain may occur. This pain is generally severe and in its characteristic form is called gall stone colic. Frequently, the patient with gall stones is convinced that she has stomach trouble as the stones may cause more distress in the region of the stomach than in the gall bladder region.

The patient usually recovers from an attack of gall stone colic within a few days and may not notice more symptoms for several months. The distress experienced depends to some extent upon the size of the stone—naturally a larger stone will cause more pain as it induces a greater stretching of the narrow duct. The very small stones may escape from the gall bladder with comparative ease and after reaching the small intestine may pass uneventfully out of the body. The diagnosis of gall stones is best established by the use of the X-ray. The patient is given a special dye which renders the gall bladder visible and is then X-rayed. Most of the typical gall stones are thus easily detected, although some special types of stones do not show. When smaller stones are located through this method, it is often a good plan to advise the patient to undertake a conservative treatment. Part of the treatment depends upon bringing about a better flow of the bile through the gall bladder which will encourage the washing out of the small stones. I advise a fast at the start of the treatment and during the fast the patient is told to use a grapefruit and olive emulsion which tends to stimulate the gall bladder to empty itself.

At the end of the short fast, a restricted diet is outlined and the patient is especially advised to omit greasy foods, fried foods, and rich desserts. When starch has been used to excess, the amount of starch allowed must be reduced. During the fast, one or two daily enemas are to be taken. When this system of treatment is adopted a series of X-ray pictures will often show that the small stones have disappeared. After that, it then becomes necessary to teach the patient those good habits of living which will prevent the gall bladder from again becoming sluggish.

In the case of the larger stones, surgery is often the only recourse to the problem. Such operations are often followed by an increase in well-being I suggest that the conservative treatment be tried first, and then if necessary, operative treatment be relied upon.

Notwithstanding the wonderful transformations which the new pedagogy has brought to Harvard, Yale, and Princeton, yet no one can point out with marked and measured certainty wherein the graduates of these famous institutions today are superior to their predecessors of forty years ago. Such improvements must be general and gradual and like the Kingdom of Heaven, cometh not with observation.

Let us give full anticipated credit to the improved output of our higher institutions due to their adequate facilities and better pedagogical tools and equipment. But the past, at least, is secure. The new pedagogical deal must carry on, carry out and carry up the work of their predecessors rather than belittle and jubilate over the destruction of the former, firmer foundation. If the new educational leaders can accomplish with modern tools and equipment results which stand out in sharp contrast to that which their predecessors achieved when they had little else to work with except faith, enthusiasm and devotion great will be their achievement, and none will be so little and mean in spirit as to deny them their just need of praise. But they shall be known by performance and not by prophecy.

SLASHES "GOSSIP MONGER"

Among us are little sneaking, green-eyed folks with maggot-festered hearts and serpent tongues. These half-human monsters are the demons who block the path that we must journey to success. They loiter at the gates of religion, of medicine, of pedagogy, of business, of politics and hurl their red malice and nasty criticism at those talented and trained folk who attempt to achieve great heights in this world. A referee is appointed—a worthy woman whose life has been one matchless struggle with adversity, whose aim has always been high, whose mind has always been alert, keen, and active,—instantly against her is hurled all the poison epithets that an envious brain can create. Some say that it is unfair to give a woman a job that has so much importance. Some say that she does not possess a college degree and therefore is unfit, some say that she just doesn't fit in, some say that she is too fair, folks might think she's white and then we would not get credit for her work, and others say she just ain't no good anyhow.

These nasty utterances so commonly made against the worthwhile citizens are confessions of envy and expressions of a jealousy-crazed brain. Any one who makes them admits that he suffers of incurable insanity that leads him to every low and base means to obtain the personal recognition and glory which his own ego craves. Needless fault-finding is a venom created from love of power, it is an expression of hatred for our superiors, it is evidence of our realization that we ourselves are not what we wish to be.

The meaty-livered practitioners of slander who appear to be normal, sedate, and loving ladies and gentlemen are those diseased persons who do most harm to our ambitious people. Burnt out and dissipated themselves, they slink about from door to door spreading false reports about this and that. Into the ears of white officials they empty their scorpionous lies and thus break down many of the wholesome reforms and benefits which could come from properly informed white directors. Good citizenship and race loyalty is killed by the vicious doctrine of "let's put the heat on him."

Young people are the choice victims of our champion reputation eaters. When the young man attempts to climb to political or economic glory the mongers surround him, hedge him in, rush upon him and below their battle hymn of "get rid of him, cripple him, slay him." Some kind hearted sympathizer asks why, "why?" The answer comes "because he will get the sweet head already he's passed me three times without speaking. I don't like him, he never was any good." The reputation eaters then go into a huddle and confer on the method of slaughter, they pounce upon their man and nothing is left of him but memory. This is our race saturnalia, our heyday as gory as a lynch party, our reincarnation of Roman amphitheatre torture.

Truly it seems that the only real organization the race has in which Negroes think and act together and enjoy results together is that assembled to attack some other person of worth.

To offset this program our civic and reflective minded citizens must learn to counteract to defeat these insidious pests (if they can be discovered). Good citizens must close their ears to slander, see that policies rather than personalities are their main regard, must smash with a hard right fist the mouth that gossips, and take for a long one-way ride those dirty hecklers who pack tales in the back doors of public down-town offices.

Religion and Christianity

(By E. O. CAIN)

Jesus, when on earth taught only the commandments of God. He was God's duly appointed, anointed, and commissioned son to carry out God's purpose. Christ means "the anointed one" and therefore Jesus was the beginner of Christianity. Jesus, although born a Jew was not a religionist. On the contrary, he pointed out that the religion of the Jewish leaders was of the devil, therefore, the leaders sought to kill him.

On one occasion when they came to Jesus for the purpose of entrapping him, Jesus clearly defined the difference between religion and Christianity. He pointed out distinctly that religion originates with God's adversary, the devil, and that the religion then being practiced by the Pharisees and Scribes was contrary to the word of God. The Bible record is: "Then there came to Jesus from Jerusalem, Pharisees and Scribes saying, Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they wash not their hands when they eat bread. And he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandments of God because of your tradition; well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying, This people honoreth me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me; but in vain do they worship me, teaching as their doctrines the precepts of men." Matt. 15:1-3, 6-9.

Just as the preacher of today takes a text to suit the people. But at God's appointed time He will burn up the church. This testimony of Jesus shows beyond any question of doubt that religion is an open defiance of the laws of God, and that a religion like the Pharisees practiced among the people is an abomination in the sight of God and those who practice the same make void the word of God. At this point it is important to read the scriptural record spoken by Jesus and found in John's Gospel 8:37-44. "I know that you seek to kill me because my word hath not free course in you. I speak the things which I have seen with my Father and ye also do the things which ye heard from your fathers."

They answered and said unto him, "Our Father is Abraham." Jesus saith unto them, "If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham; but now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth which I heard from God; this did not Abraham say ye do the works of your father." They said unto him, "We were not born of fornication, we have one father even God." Jesus said unto them, "If God were your father, ye would love me for I came forth and am come from God; for neither have I come of myself but He sent me. Why do ye not understand my speech? Even because ye cannot hear my words ye are of your father, the devil and the lusts of your father it is your will to do. He was a murderer from the beginning and standeth not in the truth because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie he speaketh of his own; for he is a liar and the father thereof."

The case of Saul of Tarsus, who afterwards was called Paul is here cited. Saul was a Pharisee, himself, and practiced the Jewish religion, the right of authority is that he was a member of the Jewish court at Jerusalem, presided over by the high priest. After the crucifixion of Jesus, Saul continued a vigorous persecution of the true followers of Christ. Saul was bitter against the Christians. What was true in Paul's day is also true in this day. When Paul was religious, he sought the pleasure of men that he might have their praise and approval. While doing so he became famous and popular among his followers at the religious sect. Upon this point Jesus plainly stated: "For that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God." Luke 16:15. Attempting to show that religion does not mean anything except it is emerged in Christianity.

James said if any man among you seem to be religious and bridlet not his tongue but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is in vain. That means you have to be Christ-like. For Christ did not slander anyone, but had time to visit every one that needed him. For pure and undefiled religion is this, to visit the afflictions of everyone and let not man spat you. James 1:26-27. Now if religion is one with Christianity, Jesus would not have come. For he said, for this purpose came I into the world that the whole lump might be leavened that means that lump of religion, the revelation concerning Christ is progressive to the believer. He never came upon whom he will. Apparently without reference to conditions in them during his earthly life Christ taught his disciples they might receive the spirit through prayer to the Father. Luke 11:13. Now this amongst the leaders of today who denied the existence of angles or the spirit and all miracles and especially the resurrection they are this religious rationalists of this time. Mark 12:18-23.

Henderson Wins Women Singles in Net Matches

The Indianapolis Racket Club opened their annual tournament last week at the Douglas park courts. A large crowd of tennis fans attended the matches and saw Miss Leslye Henderson win the Women's singles when she defeated Miss Gladysine Graves.

The play-off between W. Banks and Hummons was delayed Tuesday because of darkness. The winner of their match was scheduled to play H. Zeigler, Thursday.

In the quarter-finals, the players of the women's singles were L. Henderson vs. Thelma Russell, Julia Payne vs. Ruth McArthur, Grace Young vs. E. Edwards, and Gladysine Graves vs. L. Henderson won 6-2, 5-7, 6-1; Julia Payne won 6-3, 6-0, V. Edwards won 6-1, 6-1, and Gladysine Graves won by default. L. Henderson and G. Graves won their semi-finals matches 6-3, 6-1, and 6-4, 6-1. In the finals Henderson came through to win 6-4, 4-6, and 6-4.

In the quarter-finals Hummons, W. Banks, H. Freeman and Zeigler won. Zeigler won from H. Freeman with the play-off between Hummons and Banks being delayed until Wednesday. The winner will play Zeigler in the Men's singles final Thursday.

GOLF And Fairway Chatter...

(By CHARLES MARTIN)

The Indianapolis team was defeated by Dayton last Sunday for the first time in the history of the inter club matches. The low scorer for Dayton was Wallace and Williamson 79's. Jack Henderson was low for Indianapolis with a 76. Dinner was served on the club house lawn by Bish Owsley. The Dayton men left with much joy over defeating the Naptown boys; a return match will be played at Dayton some time in September.

Mr. Andrew Sharpe left Monday via Chicago, Detroit, for the National Tournament to be held in Cleveland, August 31 to September 3rd. A vast horde of regulars will follow later, Mrs. Lucy Williams, National Women's Champ; Mrs. Mildred Bailey, Mrs. Ada Thompson, Mrs. Edith White, Mrs. A. B. Helm, Abraham Dillard, President, Douglas Club; Hayden Hibbett, H. E. (Dick) Jones, Johnny Green, Babe Stewart, Richard Clay, Verne Adam, Hubbee Mitchell, and others including the writers. This group will leave Saturday afternoon. Reports of the progress of the Indianapolis players will appear in this column next week.

Where did Hibbett go Monday when he said he would come right back to the course? Abe thinks he had enough.

Reports are that Mrs. Ella C. Abel and Miss Gertrude Harris, who were in an auto accident, are doing very nicely; these two women will be missed by the many friends and admirers at the National. We hope them a speedy recovery and that next year they will again be in the running.

RULES OF THE GAME OF GOLF

Rules for Stroke Play Foursome Competitions.

The Special Rules for Stroke Play Foursome Competitions, and where the context so admits the word "competitor" shall be held to include the "partner."

Rules for Par and Bogey Competitions.

A Bogey Competition is a form of Golf Competition in which play is against a fixed score at each hole of the stipulated round or rounds.

The reckoning is made as in Match Play, and the winner is the competitor who is most successful in the aggregate of holes. The Rules for Stroke Competitions shall apply with the following exceptions:

(1) Any hole for which a competitor makes no return shall be regarded as a loss. The marker shall only be responsible for the marking of the correct number of strokes at each hole at which a competitor makes a score either equal to or less than the fixed score under handicap.

(2) Any breach of Rule which entails the penalty of disqualification, shall only disqualify the competitor for the hole at which the breach of Rule occurred; but a competitor shall not be exempted from general disqualification imposed by Stroke Rules 2 (1), 4 (2), and 5 (1) and (2) provided that Stroke Rule 5 (2) shall not operate when a mistake in the marking of a card does not affect the result of the hole.

NOTE—The holes at which strokes are to be given or taken should be indicated on the Scoring Card.

The United States Golf Association recommends that clubs continue to follow the custom of allowing each Competitor seven-eighths of his full handicap.

Rules for Three-Ball and Four-Ball Matches.

GENERAL

(1) Any player may have any ball in the match lifted or played, at the option of its owner, if he considers that it might interfere with or be of assistance to a player or side, but this is only permissible before the player has played his stroke.

(2) If a player's ball move any other ball in the match, the moved ball must be replaced, as near as possible to the spot where it lay, without penalty.

(3) Through the green a player shall incur no penalty for playing when an opponent should have done so, and the stroke shall not be recalled.

On the putting-green the stroke may be recalled by an opponent, but not a penalty shall be incurred.

THREE-BALL MATCHES

(4) During a three-ball match if no player is entitled to a teeing-ground to claim the honour from both opponents, the same order of striking shall be followed as at the last teeing ground.

(5) In a three-ball match, if a player's ball strike or be moved by an opponent or an opponent's caddy or clubs, that opponent shall lose the hole to the player. As regards the other opponent the occurrence shall be treated as a rub of the green.

BLACK HAWKS READY FOR GRID SEASON IN N.Y.C.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27. (ANP)—Declaring that he is going to stress fundamentals of football in coaching his squad this season, Tom Sanders, coach of the New York Black Hawks, outlined a three weeks' conditioning and coaching system for the benefit of his stalwarts. Already, members of the team are discussing the schedule which will take them through Connecticut, New Jersey, and into Pennsylvania during the season.

A dearth of good line material, the type necessary to the type of football played by the white teams in the metropolitan area, has given Sanders and his assistants considerable worry. However, when the opening game is played, a formidable team will have been assembled.

One of the games to be played again this year is the one against Paterson, the farm team of the New York Giants, coached by Dugh Wyckoff, former Georgia Tech All-American, and George Dubofsky, the hefty guard, assistant coach at Georgetown.

Fighting His Way Up

Archie Moore's manager, Cal Thompson, has tentatively agreed to allow the fast-stepping middleweight to fight a semi-windup on the Henry Armstrong card which is being built in St. Louis for the 17th of September. Larry Adkins, mid-western promoter, has gone east to sign Armstrong this week-end. This is Moore's first bid for national repute.

Kid Chocolate Outpoints Again

NEW YORK, Aug. 27. (CNA)—Kid Chocolate, former featherweight champion of the world, hurdled another obstacle in his comeback path when he outpointed Johnny De Foe of the West Side in the ten-round feature bout at Madison Square Garden Thursday night. The Havannah warrior, facing a tough game foe, was extended to gain the award, but there was no doubt of his superiority over his white opponent.

De Foe sought to center his attack on Chocolate's mid-section, but, after the first few rounds was capably spiked in the pursuit of this policy.

The wily Chocolate elected to make a long-range fight of it and it was through the expert use of his sweeping left and rights to the head that he was able to win the unanimous award of Referee Johnny McEvoy and Judges Eddie Forbes and Patsy Haley.

Chocolate weighed 127 pounds. De Foe 126½. A crowd of 8,000 fans, of whom 7,872 paid $8.262, witnessed the bitterly fought battle.

Last Saturday the former light-heavyweight champion met strong opposition for the first time since he began his comeback a year ago in a featured ten round bout at the Fort Hamilton Arena. A capacity crowd of 5,000 saw Joe Marciano, white, give the Cuban demon plenty of trouble.

Watts, Douglas Life Guards, Wins Outstanding Award

Otis Watts, life guard at the Douglas Swimming Pool was elected the outstanding life guard in the city of Indianapolis on merits of advancement over all life guards in the city. This is the first time in history that a life guard at the Douglas Park Pool has won such an award. The award was given to the life guard showing the most and outstanding efficiency of the year.

This is the first year for Mr. Watts to serve the public at the Douglas Park Swimming Pool and he has attained this coveted honor in such a brief period of time. He deserves the congratulations of the public. He is the sole winner in the field of half a hundred. The award was given at the annual party given life guards every year. This year the party was given at the Garfield Park. The party was well attended and was enjoyed by all. Indianapolis will see that the life guards at the Douglas Park Swimming Pool rate with the best in the city of which we are proud of and deserve our greatest appreciation and cooperation. We hope that Indianapolis will patronize the pool better next year. It may prove a change for the life guards to win this award again.

LLOYD SCOTT LOSES TO WALKER OF CHI

TUSKEGEE, Ala., Aug. 27. (CN)—Tommy Walker, Chicago, created a sensation here this week when he defeated Lloyd Scott, Prairie View, Tex., 36 champ, 7-5, 6-8, 8-6, in the third round of the national colored tennis meet.

In the same round, Theodore Cousins, Montclair, N. J., defeated Ralph Smith, Tuskegee, 6-1, 6-1, Frank Jackson, Tuskegee, defeated Dr. J. L. McGriff, Portsmouth, Va., 6-3, 6-1. Dr. Reginald Weir, New York City, defeated George W. Ingram, Daytona Beach, 6-0, 6-1. Ernest McCampbell, Tuskegee, defeated Charles Penrose, Fort Benning, Ga., 8-6, 6-3.

Dr. J. C. McGriff, Jr., Portsmouth, Va., defeated Theodore R. Lawson, Prairie View, Tex., 6-3, 5-7, 6-2. Harmon Fitch, Winston-Salem, defeated William Harris, Tuskegee, 6-3, 6-3. Nathaniel Jackson, Tuskegee, defeated E. L. Cox, Tuskegee, 6-1, 6-0. James Stocks, Pasadena, Cal., defeated E. L. Stocking, Florida.

Breaks Another Record

PARIS, Aug. 27. (ANP)—Ben Johnson, this year's captain of Columbia university's track team, broke the world record in the 100 meters Sunday when he ran the distance in 10.2 seconds in the first event of an international track meet.

The listed time for the event is 10.3 seconds held by Eulace Peacock, Jesse Owens, Ralph Metcalfe, and Eddie Tolan. No previous time of 10.2 seconds has ever been allowed.

4TH ANNUAL NORTH SIDE NET MEET AUG. 30

The Fourth Annual Northwest Tennis Tournament the largest Northside sports event ever held will begin Monday, August 30, throughout the week of September 5.

Because of the great variety and unusual calibre of players in this tournament it is expected to rival any tournament ever held in Indianapolis.

Championships will be decided in men's singles, women's singles, junior singles, men's doubles, and women's doubles.

All fees must be in by Saturday afternoon, as the drawings will be made Saturday night. Registrations will be received at the courts all Saturday afternoon.

Persons showing a willingness to do something definite about avoiding accidents, may check themselves by the following summary of wise motoring.

The likelihood of accidents will be greatly decreased if you do not try to cover too many miles a day. Remember too much speed is a main factor in a large percentage of serious accidents.

Stop and relax often, but always stop off the road. Fatigue takes the pleasure out of a trip and is often the cause of many a crash. "Sun down", is a warning to slow down, remember more than half of our traffic deaths occur between dusk and darkness.

An open road is an invitation to speed but the wise driver will assume that he may meet a fool trying to pass on the wrong side of the road just beyond this hillcrest or just around that curve. Try to anticipate what may be ahead of you at all times.

Obey signs and signals. They are there for your protection, as a rule after careful study or a bad accident record. Think ahead, it is poor satisfaction to know that you had the right of way after a

10,000 SEE YOUTH WIN FROM LOGAN

FLASH

Archie Moore is being billed to fight in the city September 2nd. Who will be in the opposing corner has not been decided. Larry Adkins is the promoter of the card. The fight will be held at the Sports Arena. This will be Archie's 20th start, with a record so far of 15 K. O.'s and 19 wins. Moore has never fought here in the city.

Before a crowd of 10,000 cheering hometowns, Archie Moore, fast middleweight, stopped Nathan Logan, 1937 St. Louis Golden Glove champ, in the third round of their scheduled eight round go last week in the St. Louis Auditorium.

One minute and thirty seconds after the gong had sounded in the third Moore, who had found the champ's range, blocked a right uppercut and with a short left jab he sent the pride of St. Louis to the rosin. In the first round Logan tried to carry a fight but the wily visiting middleweight outpointed the youth and soon showed the fans his wares.

Hiawatha Gray, former fighter who carved a niche for himself in the ring, has taken Moore under his wing as his trainer is showing wonderful progress with the lad.

A new stablemate has been added to the list of Archie's co-workers. He is George Porter, St. Louis speedy featherweight, who will work under the tutelage of Cal Thompson, local promoter.

JOHN HENRY WINS ANOTHER

PITTSBURGH. (INP)—John Henry Lewis, King pin of the light heavies, defeated Italo Colonello, of Italy, in twelve rounds last Thursday night, at Forbes Field before a crowd of 7,000.

Joe to Take Farr in Fourth

NEW YORK, N. Y.—(Just Before the Battle) . . . From all indications Joe Louis should have triumphed over Tommy Farr of England, by the time you are reading this column. The necessity of making dead lines prevents me from bringing you a full account of the battle, as we see it, but next week we should have a few of the highlights of the encounter for you to read.

Louis should have an easy time with the English contender. . . In training, Farr has looked very little better than a second rate ham, but we can never forget that Schmeling also looked bad in training but managed to lick the present heavyweight champion very handsly.

Farr should lose to Louis because: First Joe is by far the better boxer. Second, Farr can't hit hard if his record means anything. Third, Anyone Joe can hit he can knock out. Fourth, Farr telegraphs his punches. Fifth, Bob Olin dumped Farr four times in their bout in England and Olin is not regarded as a hard hitter in these parts and is a light heavyweight to boot.

Louis seems to be in fine peak as the fight draws closer. He is as unworried about the outcome of the fight as a baby. On the other hand, Farr seems a bit bothered. He has been squawking at reporters, declaring that they are doing their best to make him look bad and the constant tiffs he has been having with his manager couldn't be doing him too much good.

The Louis camp refuses to say in how many rounds Joe will dispose of his opponent. They explain that they expect a good and tough fight and that they will do their best to give the fans a run for their money. In the Farr camp, the talk is the same. The Englishman swears that he will fight as long as he is physically able and that Louis may whip him but he will never be outgamed. All in all, the fight looks up as a pretty interesting affair. Both men are young and should be in the peak of condition. By this time next week, you will know what kind of a picker we are for our selection is that Joe will kayo Farr in four rounds.

Jackie Wilson Draws With Leo Rodack in St. Louis Fistic Bout

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 27. (ANP)—Although a 15-round return bout between Isidro Gastanaga, Spanish heavyweight, and Otis Thompson, Chicago Golden Gloves graduate, topped the bill, the 7,807 spectators at the auditorium Thursday night found a 10 round draw between Jackie Wilson of Pittsburgh and Leo Rodack, white, Chicago, featherweights, the feature of the evening. Thomas got his man by a fluke technical knockout in the eighth round.

Wilson, who has been begging for a match with Henry Armstrong, showed he enjoys high ranking despite his draw with Rodack, also a leading challenger. The Pittsburgh boy, the faster fighter and with a more varied assortment of weapons, found his opponent a harder hitter and a smart defensive boxer. Neither wasted blows. In the third Jackie sent Leo to the floor for a count of five with a right cross, but the latter came back and almost had Wilson on the verge of a kayo in the seventh. One judge voted for Wilson, the other called it a draw, and the referee scored Rodack the winner to make the match even. After the bout was ended, fans gave both boys one of the biggest ovations heard here in years.

Thomas, who in their previous meetings scored a 10 round decision over the Spaniard, opened up from the start and knocked Gastanaga out of the ring for a five count in the second round, but could not finish his man. After winning the first three frames easily, Otis was on the losing end as Isidro opened up in the fourth and out-bored and out-punched the Chicagoan to have a commanding lead at the end of the seven frames.

When the Spaniard, who seemed headed for a victory, failed to answer the eighth round bell, a cursory examination by the boxing commission surgeon revealed broken dental bridgework in the upper jaw, presenting the danger of a serious laceration of the mouth should the fight continue. Gastanaga, who seemed outwardly fit to carry on was booed by the crowd.

Williams, N. Y. U. Star Ready for Grid

NEW YORK, Aug. 27. (ANP)—Fifty members of the football squad of New York U. will assemble at Lake Sebago on September 2 for Coach Mal Stevens' inspection and to prepare for a strenuous season on the gridiron. And prominent among these 50 will be Ed Williams, the Mt. Vernon lad who did right well by himself as one of the outstanding backs on the New York U squad last season.

In excellent shape, Williams promises to be an even better performer this year than last, for with one year of varsity football to his credit, Williams has acquired more big time football "savvy" and knows how to go to town in the most accepted fashion. Standing six feet and carrying 200 pounds on his ample frame, Williams is one of the fastest men on the squad.

SHORT COPY

(Editors' Note) Whenever we are short on copy we always try to make it up by placing nothing but the newsy news. . . .

Orchids For the Week. . . . They go to none other than "Dutch" who rushed down town at 6 A. M. to give us the biggest laugh of the year. . . . You could have heard "us" all over town. . . . Seems that people just don't like to get in black cars. . . . and others don't like to see people in black cars. . . . "Love Thy Enemy, Saith The Good Book." . . .

Former friends of a certain local job-holder are all in tears for they fear when this administration ends, pals will fly away also. . . . Greedy Pig, Greedy Pig. . . .

One of our good (?) friends (Politician) is trying hard to hide his dice and cards away. . . . He is "salty" on having his name connected with gambling. . . . We just can't forget these things. . . . Election time is just around the corner for us, too. The Levee is wearing crepe for this Santa Claus. . . .

It seems that a certain gent on Udell street, whose chicken flew the coop last winter, is having his home air-conditioned and re-modeled. . . . Wonder if he is going to place another chicken in the coop? . . .

Way out East the boys on Nineteenth street are laughing at two friends. . . . As the story goes, one friend had a girl and his buddy wooed, rather strongly the affections of his friend's gal for a night. . . . "Come Into My House," said, "the Sparrow to the Lady." . . .

Otis Woods who has long waxed eloquent as day draws to a close offered this one for the book. . . . Now it seems to Mr. Woods' way of thinking that the depression has and will wrought fast changes. . . . To Wit: Say pal, "is the Beer Tavern on the corner still open?" . . . "It was," said Woods, "when I passed there a few minutes ago. . . . But it might have closed its door by now." . . . Ole Man Depression. . . .

Ralph Coleman still reigns as local boss of the fellows out East. . . . His lieutenant-in-chief, Luther, has joined the list of those who have retired from active duty. . . . Married. . . . James Kilbrow is running for the office. . . .

Alfred (Talladega) Clay and Lloyd (Soda) White are planning to leave for the Atlantic coast soon. . . . White to play football in Harlem and Clay to become a Philadelphia lawyer. . . . Such is the way of the world. . . .

SMOKE AND FIRE

The Thomases are just about ready to climax their heir-waiting. . . . Next month we shall be peeping around the corner for a young Joe Louis. . . . Loads of luck to them both. . . .

With these new cars popping anything might happen. . . . We understand that in the future they might even take the place of ole Dan Cupid. . . .

Boulevard Kitchen is the mecca for those who live on the near "Nawth" side. . . . Kathrine Shoffner and Allen Bartlett smilingly wait to serve you. . . .

Naptown will act as host to many out-of-towners when Fletcher Henderson and Earl Hines pull up their heavy guns on the battle front of Jazz tonight (Friday) and engage in a sham battle of music. . . . Our guess is that Tomlinson hall will be filled to the rafters with fans to see this Howard Harden attraction. . . .

Dewey Alexander, Walker usher, will be known to all young ladies as the Adonis if some fair damsel doesn't take him down the "quiet walk" soon. . . .

Freddie's Cafe in Muncie is fast becoming the place for locals to blow the suds away, if we don't miss our guess. . . . Freddie Parnell has a swell place and some enticing scenery to induce any weary businessman . . . or ladies. . . .

Now they had a very swell moonlight picnic recently . . . and everybody took everybody else's girl and went in search of "star-dust." . . .

We are glad to know that the Puryear-Hardrick combination still clicks. . . . When Hardrick was sick Puryear didn't visit her for so long (We) thought it had crumbled as did the walls of ancient China. . . . but (We) guess it didn't. . . .

Statehouse Smitty is sporting a walnut colored cane these days. . . . Maybe it would be used to ask young ladies to return radios, eh? . . . Or maybe it would stop people from telling the gent to never

The Models March On

William Frances, formerly of Les Hite's orchestra direct from the Cotton Club in Los Angeles, is now with Al Stewart's Club Astoria band of Baltimore, Md., touring Canada with Irwin C. Miller's Brown skin Models. The aggregation is enjoying a huge success in every city and hamlet. Frances is a native of California, and has played in quite a few pictures. He was a member of the Louis Armstrong when the great "Satchmo" made "Confessing," "If I Could Be With You" and a few others. While Frances is busy making the hot notes with the Models, his pretty little hot shuffling madam, known as Ella Mae Waters, is busy doing her bit with the one and only Don Redmon out East. The Models just closed a successful week at Orpheum theatre, Winnie, Peg, Manito, and are now playing the Paramount theatre, Brainerd, Minn.

Duluth, Minn. . . . All actors when in Duluth, stop by and see Wm. Tucker, 1109 W. Michigan St. Following is an excerpt from the Winnie Peg Tribune: A brilliant fast-stepping revue from opening curtain to finale. . . . Brownskin Models opened Friday night at Orpheum for a week's run to rounds of applause from an enthusiastic full house. The show, produced by Irwin C. Miller, dean of Negro impresarios, runs from the opening dance routine by the Miller-ettes chorus to the finale number by the entire company, without a break. It would be difficult to choose any particular act as the program highlight. Chas. Banks lightning tap dancer and singer, brought down the house with his intricate steps. Equally popular was Jesse James astounding dancing on crutches, unhampered by one useless leg. He executed several numbers with one leg and crutches and with crutches alone.

Kewpie Austin, former drummer of McKinney's Cotton Pickers band almost stole the show from several feature acts. His pantomime with the percussion section enveloped the whole evening. The orchestra trombonist, Sylvester Briscoe, also came in for his share of applause with smart and novel tricks with his collapsible instrument. The band itself, offered several torrid interludes in true Harlem swing tempo. Alto Mae Otis lived up to her title as the Harlem Mae West—an engaging personality and comedy songs brought her ork for several encores. Another vocalist Fay Canty personified her numbers, "Under My Skin," and "Indian Love Call." The feature act of the revue was a combination of brief poses by the Brownskin Models themselves.

Smart lighting and colorful sets added to the brilliance of this interlude featuring Blanche Thompson, the bronze venus. Ernest (Baby) Seals, typical blackface comedian, and Geo. Bias with a sweet crooning voice, put over a line of chatter that rounds out a bill of worthwhile entertainment at the Orpheum theatre. . . . D-W-B.

"Trial of Dr. Beck" Wins Favor in N. Y.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (ANP)—Once again the Federal Theater scores a hit—this time in the presentation of the "Trial of Dr. Beck" done by a mixed group of players who hail from Newark.

Even the most hard boiled critics softened up on this one and lauded the efforts of the actors and praised the book of the young colored author, Hughes Allison.

Having to do with the trial of a colored physician charged with murdering his wife, the play assumes a mystery drama color steeped with "Negro psychology" if there be any such thing. Relating in detail the story unfolds (possibly for the benefit of the white audiences) the fancies and foibles of colored folk; how colored women seek a professional title to marry if they can; how women of the race subsidize students in school to carry out this plan; how the color line appears even in the race—all is told and told effectively in this brilliant play.

Colored members of the cast include Earl Sydnor; Kenneth Woodruff; Kenneth Bonwick; Jethro Webb; Slim Mason; Carrie Adams; Lula King; Kermit Augustine; Tessie Greene; Virginia Girvin; Dorothy Washington and H. Blanche Harris. The white members are equally as capably cast and are brilliant along with their brother thespians.

Don Redmon, Well-Known Ork Leader, Arrested at Atlantic City

SPEEDY TRIAL FREES MAESTRO

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 27.—Magistrate John S. Giles, in an improvised courtroom, set up through the courtesy of Charles Randall, in the Philadelphia House, dismissed charges of theft early Friday morning, which had been lodged against Don Redmon, universally-popular orchestra leader, through a warrant which had been obtained by Luke Taliferro, recognized delegate of the Northside subsidiary organization to the white Musicians' Local.

According to the magistrate, Taliferro aroused him about 6 a.m. Friday and demanded a warrant charging that in calling on Redmon at the Waltz Dream Hall, where he and his orchestra had played an engagement, to collect the prescribed traveling tax, the A. F. M. contract which had been earlier had been deposited with the local subsidiary, had been taken.

Following the issuance and service of the warrant, the magistrate, who was some distance from his office, made it possible through the Randall courtesy, to hear the case immediately, so as to make possible the early departure of Redmon and his orchestra.

Testimony, according to Judge Giles, tended to show that the delegate Taliferro was under the influence of intoxicants and extremely flimsy evidence presented to substantiate the charge of theft.

With these facts well weighed, and making certain that the tax of approximately $17 was paid without any trouble, the magistrate dismissed the theft charges against Mr. Redmon.

Although the diminutive maestro had little to say just before leaving, several of his musicians were loud in their denunciation of Taliferro's actions, and declared in to uncertain terms their determination for redress through their New York City Local No. 302, which is the Gibraltar organization of the A. F. M.

RACE SINGER ON STARS PROGRAM

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 26. (ANP)—Unusual honors came to a little brownskin actress and singer last week when Theresa Harris was presented as guest artist on the famous Hollywood Hotel program. This nation-wide program is presented by Louella O. Parsons, famous theatrical editor of the leading daily here, and consists of the dramatizations of recently completed motion picture features. Theresa has just finished as the lady to Ralph Cooper in Million Dollar Productions, new all-colored cast feature "Bargain With Bullets."

Through courtesy of Harry Popkin, head of Million Dollar Productions, she was loaned to Twentieth Century-Fox Studio which was presenting on the air their recent feature "One Mile From Heaven." Theresa played the part of "Flora" which was interpreted by Fredi Washington in the thrilling feature in which Bill Robinson also had an excellent part.

Founded on a true incident that occurred last year in New York, Flora is an octomom mother who raises a little white child as her own. But trouble threatens to spoil her happiness when prejudiced white persons seek to have the child separated from her by law.

Yesterday we talked with a man who has driven a car 11 years and has never heard a word from the back seat—he drives a hearse.

NATIONALLY KNOWN DANCE BAND TO DRAW CAPACITY CROWD AFTER YEAR'S ABSENCE ON TOUR

"Torid Tunes" and sophisticated 'swing' comes to Naptown for the first time in a year, when that inimitable and collegiate 'swing'ing maestro, Claude Hopkins and his celebrated dance band play a one night dance engagement at Tomlinson hall, Sunday, Sept. 5. Hopkins is regarded in music circles as the country's foremost swing piano player. His appearance here last May, 1936, is still being talked about wherever dance lovers congregate. A capacity crowd was on hand for the affair, and judging from the sale of advance tickets, another capacity crowd will greet the celebrated maestro.

Hopkins started his study of music as a child, taking up the subject very seriously. As he graduated from high school he became more keenly interested in the classics, and, after graduating from college, he took a course at the Washington Conservatory of Music where he studied piano and harmony in the best classical tradition. Completing this extensive preparation, he then set out on his own and became a jazz pianist in a small dance orchestra.

In Louis Armstrong's new book, "Swing That Music," Louis selects Claude as the outstanding swing pianist. You too, will select Claude when you hear his style of 'swing' at Tomlinson hall, Sunday, Sept. 5. Advance tickets are now on sale at 50c for the first 1000. Admission at the door is 90c. Buy your tickets today, and save the difference. This is another "natural" brought to you by Matthew Dickerson, Indiana's foremost se-

Up and Down de AVENOO

(By YE AVENOOER)

POPULAR RECORDS . . . Word comes to ye avenooer that oday Bing Crosby has lost his selling supremacy in the Record world to senia Louis Armstrong . . . the trumpet man . . . Hear "Public Melody Number One" and "Red Cap." Then decide for yourself. . . . The inimitable "duke of Ellington" still holds his number one position with "All God's Chillun Got Rhythm" and "Alabama Home." "Smarty" and "I'm Gonna Put You in Your Place" insures Fats Waller the highest ranking for Victor, despite the presence of Benny Goodman on this label. . . . While speaking of oday's records, everything for Claude Hopkins and his sophisticated dance. . . . They'll 'swing' on down at Tomlinson Labor Day nite. . . .

Are youse and youse a careless, reckless and thoughtless driver? If youse are, stop and read what it means to drive safely and sanely. . . . Read what "Hammy" says in your Indianapolis Recorder each week. . . . Don't use Indiana avenoo for a speedway. . . . Remember, you might accidentally run over or hit your wife, sister, mother or dad. . . . Or someone else's parent. . . . Don't wait until you get on the avenoo to show off. . . . Try it at the Speedway. . . . Or buy youse self an aeroplane. . . . How am I doing, hey, hey. . . .

We wonder why our police officers aren't arresting avenooers who patrol the thoroughfare nightly and use all sorts of 'cuss' words. . . . These nimcompoops should be placed in a padded cell. . . . They seem to forget that there are other people on the avenoo. . . . or do they think that the avenoo belongs to their kind. . . . Don't forget brother that your sister or mother might take a notion and walk through the avenoo on her way to town or church. . . . Let's have a little more action you avenoo coppers. . . .

Have you ever stopped to think what would happen if everybody who read this piffle would SPEND their money with merchants who advertised in The Recorder. . . . Well, The Recorder would have to hire more race men and women and build a plant twice as large as the present one. . . . Let's get together you folk and spend our money with our friends. . . .

TO THE SCENE . . . Saturday morning found ye avenooer dashing out Northwestern avenoo to the scene of what was first reported to be a triple death scene. . . . Our informant over anxious to deliver a choice piece of news, seemingly, twisted his information a bit. . . . Nevertheless, we found the death scene at 2403 Northwestern avenoo. . . . A typical Senegambian hovel. . . . Curious persons moving hither and thither. . . . Reporters and Coppers. . . . dashing to and fro. . . . Witnesses seeking other climes. . . . The dead man is sent to the morgue. . . . the living gent to the city hospital. Witnesses apprehended sent to jail. . . . Slated for vagrancy. . . . "Twas a cutting scrape. . . . A homemade knife, made from a razor and fastened into an ice pick handle, was believed to have dealt death and removed from these terrestrial shores one Robert Clark 40 years old, following an altercation with Samuel Martin of the above address. . . . Martin who had left the scene of murder was apprehended by police several blocks away and was placed in the calaboose to face a nice little murder rap. . . . Clark's throat and abdomen were slashed. . . . Blood flowed as freely as the waters of the complacent canal. . . . It was another butchery indulged in by Senegambians for want of something better to do. . . . Such nonsense. . . .

WATCH YOUR CHILD . . . A few days ago an aged Negro was charged in Police Court with sodomy on an infant . . . a boy in his teens. . . . In other words he is reported to have had unnatural sex relation with the child. . . . This is not the first time a case of this kind had popped up in court. . . . and, we doubt very much whether or not hundreds of similar cases have been reported to the police. . . . It behooves every parent to be watchful of their children, both boys and girls. . . . For sex mad persons have no regard for the child who unknowingly succumb to these beasts. . . . Don't allow your children to make friends too easily with grown ups. . . . Beware of the men or women who are too anxious to bestow gifts upon your children. . . . Watch your daughters. . . . and do not permit them to dress too lightly around men. . . . Especially those girls who are quite large for their age. . . . Sex degenerates have caused hundreds of little girls and boys to be sleeping beneath the sod today. . . . Report any suspicious person to the police. . . . For in doing so, you might save a child's life or humiliation. . . . Selah. . . .

RASTUS MURRAY, famous for his interpretation of the dance craze "Peckin'" and as a red hot entertainer and funny man, is creating a heat wave in the line of gags and laughs in the comparative cool setting of the Blue Haven Club at Wildwood, New Jersey. Rastus will be remembered as the recent sensation of the Parry Cafe in Philly.

On The Air

(By FORRIEBELLE BROOKS for ANP)

CHICAGO, Aug. 26. — The lady who usually pens this column — you remember, Jackie Meares — has been promoted to things higher up — a position, as it were, as English instructor in the high school system of Oklahoma, no less. So I must take up where she has so ably left off, and try to carry on for the show must go on — or must it?

I know you were all interested in the broadcast of Henry Armstrong's fight last week. I can see you sitting on the edge of your chairs, when he came to the mike to "say something" to the folks listenin' in. And when he had said he had to say, some of us were oh, so relieved at his excellent choice of words and clear diction as compared with the speech of most of our "fighting mugs" — or anybody else, for that matter — while those who were prepared to laugh at whatever he had to say, to ridicule each grammatical error with fiendish glee, were hard to put to it to stretch their knowledge of the English language to the point of just repeating his words verbatim. Thanks, Henry; we're all happy over your victory, and over the intelligence you exhibited when you spoke to all those who were waiting to hear you.

William Grant Still's "Afro-American" symphony was one of the features of Hans Lange and the Chicago Symphony orchestra last week, a program originating in Grant Park on Chicago's lake front. As nightfall blurred the outline of the Michigan Avenue buildings, blending the buildings, the park, and the band shell into one mass, the clear sky completed a perfect setting and splendid atmosphere for the sentimentally yearning Negro music. The Grand Park band concerts are broadcast every night.

WGN and the Mutual Broadcasting System will broadcast one of the few international boxing shows of the year on Wednesday, August 2, between 10 and 11:30 p. m. CDT. On that night the Mutual network will present the championship bout between the champion of South American and the champion of the Catholic Youth's organization of Chicago from Soldiers' Field. Two of the latter are colored. The international show will be broadcast by Bob Elson, assisted by Phil Collins.

"Until the Real Thing Comes Along," Andy Kirk's theme song, is a bit modest judging from the demonstration of mellow swing music Andy gave radio listeners Thursday night when he made his initial broadcast from southside Chicago's Grand Terrace Cafe. He's replacing Fletcher Henderson, George Dewey Washington and Pha Terrell are singing with the orchestra, and quite a bit of solo time is given to Mary Lou Williams, pianist, on the air programs. Mary Lou is recognized as the greatest woman swing pianist in the game.

Did you notice (or did you not notice) that O'Keefe on the Town Hall Tonight program of Wednesday evening, said in one of his gags that the four Mills Brothers came from the South? (Aside: and someone asks, "Any special part?" And we answer brightly, "Oh, yes, all four of them." But the gag's all wrong: the lads are products of Ohio. (Yes, all four of them.)

Have you heard the Bronze Harmonizers swinging (I mean singing) it from New York on WHN Sundays, at 6:30 p.m.? They're a mixed octet who blend voices okay in song ranging from spirituals to swing, with contralto especially good. "THAT'S WHAT'S THE MATTER"

Tuskegee Grad Heads Chorus

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE, Ala., Aug. 26. — The question is often asked, "Do Tuskegee students after leaving school, use the training they receive as members of the choir, band or orchestra?" Therie E. Porter, who attended Tuskegee Institute, 1922-1927, is one answer to that question. While at Tuskegee Porter was a member of the Institute Choir, which at that time was under the direction of Mrs. Jennie C. Lee. Mrs. Lee, famous as a choir director at Tuskegee, was succeeded by William L. Dawson.

Three years ago young Porter was employed as a waiter on the D and C Lines and frequently sang, when off duty, at various Detroit churches. One night after service a stranger walked up, asked Porter his name and inquired what he was doing in Detroit. The stranger learning that the young singer was from Tuskegee showed increasing interest. He advised Porter to get in touch with Mr. M. A. Clark, Relations Manager for the U. S. Rubber Company. As a result, Porter has been with the U. S. Rubber Company for three years. He has charge of the U. S. Rubber Company chorus which comprises eight colored men. The chorus fills engagements throughout the year, not only in Detroit, but throughout the midwest. Between August 27 and October 30, 1937, the chorus will render 19 programs. Later in the season, the chorus will broadcast over WZZW, Detroit. This employment pays between $35.00 and $40.00 per week.

theme that's okay. The group harmonizes "September in the Rain," and "Swing for Sale," and insist that the "World Can Do No Harm," a spiritual in swing tempo.

An innovation will be introduced Sunday morning at the Turner Memorial church, A. M. E., Chicago, when the pastor, Rev. Frank Clarence Lowry, will have his congregation listen to a broadcast of the Southernaires at 11 o'clock sharp. The public has been invited.

And so, ladies and gentlemen, I've exhausted my knowledge of what's what and who's who in radioland for this week, and not another item presents itself, so I guess it's time to say—Goodbye, please.

CREATES NEW ROLE

FREDERICK CLARKE, contract player at B. P. Schubert's studio, brings a new kind of butler to the screen. English born, Freddie is a "gentleman's gentleman." The studio wants him that way: he is naturally and we look forward to the development of a splendid characterization in "Blossoms on Broadway" which he began this week.

Frederick tells this one on himself: "You know, before I got this break in the movies, I was pretty well done in. I must have borrowed off all my friends and it just seemed my good luck to turn up at dinner time for the one square meal I could get. Well, of course, now that I have this little break, I'm busy paying off my old debts.

"The other night I was prancing gaily up the boardwalk to Hollywood Bowl when someone began calling and waving frantically at me. I hesitated at first, then remembering that I had been in the movies, I thought: this must be my PUBLIC so I waved back at the man. Being very friendly, you know, Before I knew anything the fellow was right at my coat-tail, pulling like mad and he wasn't a fan at all—but an old creditor!"

The court controversy has reached a stage of surmises and compromises.

THINGS THEATRICAL

(By FRANKLYN FRANK for ANP)

GERSHWIN THE GREATEST? CHICAGO, Aug. 21. — Since the recent sudden passing of George Gershwin, white writers have tumbled over one another in their rush to acclaim him as the greatest composer of jazz music. Just where, then, do Duke Ellington and William C. Handy rate?

Gershwin is best known for his "Rhapsody in Blue" which is supposed to have made jazz acceptable to the reactionaries. But Handy's "Memphis Blues" and his "St. Louis Blues," although not nearly so pretentious, are fundamentally more sincere compositions than the rhapsody and without them the latter never could have been written.

It is also a fact that Wil Marlino Cook gave a synecopated concert in New York that antedated Paul Whiteman's rendition of the rhapsody by several years, and had appeared in Europe bringing about highbrow recognition of jazz a good many summers before the Gershwin-Whiteman triumph. "Had Cook and his boys been several shades lighter, recognition would have gone to this aggregation instead of to the Gershwin-Whiteman combination.

Many of the world's most distinguished critics consider Ellington our foremost composer of jazz music. And viewing the matter dispassionately, what jazz written by Gershwin can compare with the Duke's "Mood Indigo," "Black and Tan Fantasy," "Day Break Express," "Solitude," "Creole Love Call" or "Reminiscing in Tempo" to mention only a few?

Getting back to the Rhapsody, here is what John Hammond, international authority, wrote in a recent New Masses article: "His so-called serious works, the piano concerto and the infamous Rhapsody in Blue probably will not live to plague his memory, but his magnificent lilying show tunes will continue to provide the best improvisers of this and future days with inspiration."

Very well. If we turn to popular tunes, in addition to the others mentioned how about Fats Waller's "Ain't Misbehavin'," "Honeysuckle Rose" and a few others?

This is no attempt to belittle the late Gershwin, but merely to point out certain things that even the Species Aframericanus may have forgotten. Gershwin was not America's foremost jazz composer. He might be considered her foremost white jazz composer — but with Hoagy "Stardust" Carmichael, Irving Berlin and a few others in existence, even that is highly debatable. As a matter of fact, Gershwin himself considered his Borge and Bess tunes his best — and they were not jazz.

NOTES ON A CUFF Those Duskymericans who look down on old blues recordings in their hey-day because they were "so cullud" will be amazed to music place a high value on discs learn that serious students of hot cut by Edith Wilson and Bessie

Smith. The United Hot Clubs of America have just released Bessie's "Young Woman's Blues" coupled with "Baby Doll" and they are considered classics, what with accompaniment by Joe Smith on trumpet, Fletcher Henderson on piano and Eustace Bailey on clarinet. Collectors are rushing $1.50 to New York to buy this record which many of you have probably thrown away.

London critics are panning the cinema, "Slave Ship," for its failure to take advantage of its possibilities. "Home Sweet Home" is scheduled to have its Broadway premiere with an all sepa cast at the Biltmore theatre early in October. . . . Hollywood plans for a completely dusky film musical took a setback last week when distributors reported they didn't think it would sell. Irving Mills, however, is still trying to convince Ernst Lubitsch and Lew Leslie is talking to 20th Century-Fox.

Pound your palms for Clinton Rosemond, who has skyrocketed to stardom in "They Won't Forget," new Warner Bros. picture now drawing praise from most of the critics. Mervyn LeRoy, the director, says he's never seen "a greater Negro actor." . . . John S. Brown, Harlem playwright, authored "Daylight and Dark," a drama which made its bow at the Comedy theatre in New York last week with an all-white cast. . . . Tim Trymn, who maintains a studio in Radio City, has just written "Let Me Take You by the Hand," a waltz ballad expected to become a hit. He is also composer of "Shout, Sister, Shout," the Roswell sisters' theme song; "Moonlight," and "Big Cry Baby in the Moon."

Has Stuff Smith, the ace violinist and "Lise-A-Muggin'" man, got his California trouble straightened out yet? You know he left Hollywood hurriedly and was dropped from A. F. of L. rolls for dealing with non-union agents. . . . The Cotton Club, which reopens soon, will snub posin', peckin', the big apple and other late dances for a "Harlem Bolero." . . . J. Turner Layton, now of London, who composed "Way Down Yonder in New Orleans," "Dear Old Southland," "After You're Gone" and "Strut Miss Lizzie" has just given Shapiro, Bernstein and Co. of New York the right to renew their copyrights on these songs.

NEW PLATTERS

Ellington's recording of "Caravan," written by Juan Tizol, his West Indian valve trombonist, is the month's best. The Duke's own "Azure" is the best study in blue waxed in some time. . . . Edgar Hayes also has a swell interpretation of "Caravan." . . . Louis Armstrong has brought out "Public Melody Number One," which he features in "Artists and Models," coupled with "Red Caps."

FEMME

Actress Selected for Stellar Role

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Aug. 26. (By Harry Levett for ANP)—The biggest news of all the "hot copy" out of Hollywood this week is that Louise Beavers has just been signed by Million Dollar Productions, Inc., for their next all-colored cast feature picture. A special story written around her by one of the cinema town's most successful scenarists from a major studio, is near completion for her starring vehicle in the big class. A screen drama which will give scope to the greatest talent she possesses as none of her past roles have been fitted to do.

Rated as one of the best actresses in Hollywood, following "Imitation of Life," which proved to be one of 1935's best successes because of her portrayal of Aunt Delilah, she has been in great demand by the powerful major studios for parts in which she would be featured yet definitely typed by them. For even in "Imitation of Life" she is depicted as humble and subservient to Claudette Colbert, listed as the star, even after as Claudette's business partner in the motion picture industry.

her "pancake" invention has made them both wealthy.

They want her because she is a great aid to their box-office so it took considerable maneuvering on the part of Harry Popkin, executive producer of the new company, to secure her release from a major studio. However she was glad to do her bit toward carrying the messages to the world conveyed in all colored cast pictures, that no other kind can convey: that a cross-cut of Negro life means more than a bit of comedy by-play.

With that gripping gangster picture "Bargain With Bullets," ready for release next week to a waiting world, the millions of colored motion picture fans will have their screenfare appetites further whetted by witnessing that talented star, Ralph Cooper, in the powerful role of "Mugsy Moore." Surrounded by a cast such as few stars have had as support, the addition of Miss Beavers to the roster of Million Dollar Productions sends a ray of hope to the race that at last it will be well represented in the motion picture industry.

Entertainment Whirl

By JIMMY EVANS

(International Negro Press)

NEW YORK, N. Y. — Clinton Rosemond, the colored feature player in the Warner Bros. film, "They Won't Forget," a treatise on lynching, is the cinema find of the season and is exciting theatergoers with his excellent performance. . . . Place this picture on your "must see list." . . . The 4 Scottsboro Boys were the feature attraction at the Apollo Theatre last week. . . . A fairly large crowd greeted their initial vaude appearance though there are many that feel that they are capitalizing on their misfortune. . . .

Buck and Bubbles, the famed comedy dance team, are featured in "Varsity Show," a new film, which stars Dick Powell and Fred Waring. . . . Paul Robeson, the great singer and actor, will be seen shortly in "King Solomon's Mines," a British Gaumont production. . . . Eddie Green, the radio comedian, who has been heard with Rudy Vallee several times and more recently was featured with Louis Armstrong for the Fleischman Yeast, will make a series of guest appearances with the Maxwell House Showboat. . . .

A new show to hit the air featuring colored talents comes over W. H. N. in New York, the stars the Bronze Harmonizers. A mixed octet, they specialize in spirituals and swing singing. . . . They may be heard at 6:30. . . . Harlem's famed king of the drums, Chick Webb, and his orchestra, with swing-singer Ella Fitzgerald doing the vocalizing, played to standing room at Loews' State Theatre in New York last week. . . . The show also featured Chuck and Chukles, Bardu Ali and Charles Linton. . . .

For lovers of hot recordings may we recommend the waxings of Art Tatum. The blind pianist, and his rendition of "I Would Do Most Anything for You" and "Liza." Fats Waller can also be heard singing and playing "Basin Street Blues" and "I Ain't Got Nobody." Bob Howard, whose style is similar to Waller's has made a recording of "I'll Take the Key and Lock

You Up!" plus "Penny Wise and Pound Foolish." . . . For those who love the torrid trumpeting of Louis Armstrong, we have "Yours and Mine" and "Sun Showers." . . . Another recording by Louis that is worth your time is "Public Melody Number One" and "Red Cap." Fats Waller makes the piano talk in his recording of "Tea for Two" and "Keeping out of Mischief Now."

Le Duc de Ellington plays the Towner ballroom, Des Moines, August 26, and the Turnpike Casino in Lincoln, Nebraska the next day. . . . Teddy Hill's orchestra is still holding forth at the Palladium Theatre in London, where they are supplying the music for the Cotton Club Show. Lucky Millinder has been selected to play for the Daily News annual dance contest to be held at Madison Square Garden, August 25. . . . The Duke now has a brass section of seven, four trumpets and three trombones, with the return of Fred "Posey" Jenkins, away for nearly two years because of illness.

Cab Calloway and his Cotton Club orchestra just completed their contribution to the new Republic picture "Merry-Go-Round" at the old Vitaphone studios in New York. . . . Choo Berry, rated by the critics as one of the most terrific tenor sax players, has been added to the band.

Ralph Brown, clever tap dancer, closed at the Apollo Theatre, a downtown burlesque house last week. At the Palace Theatre in Cleveland last week, Tip, Tap and Toe stopped the show. These lads are so good that no other act wants to follow them on the bill. "How Come Lawd", by Donald Heywood, announced as the first of a series of productions to be staged by the newly formed Negro Guild Theatre is slated for Broadway late in September.

Uncle Sam has $12,000,000,000 in gold in storage which means a lot of money whether you can visualize the sum or not.

Strife Wracks Church;

Pastors "Take a Walk"

NEW YORK CITY, Aug. 27. (P.F.S.)—Movement was reported here in the African Orthodox Church to organize and elect a new presiding bishop. Among the Brooklyn clergy reported as preparing to withdraw from the African Orthodox Church and consolidate with the African Orthodox Church of New York are the Rev. Fr. Theo. J. Alcantara, of St. Ambrose Church; the Rev. Canon William R. Miller, of St. Simon, the Cyprian; the Rev. O. Welch of St. Mary the Virgin and the Rev. Dr. Horace Herod. The revolt, it was revealed, follows dissatisfaction with the jurisdiction of the Most Rev. Ernest Robertson, Archbishop of the African Orthodox Church. This is expected to result in the election of the Most Rev. Reginald Grant Barrow, president or senior bishop of the African Orthodox Church of New York since 1927, as bishop of the jurisdiction of Brooklyn and Long Island of the consolidated church.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27. (P.F.S.)—Ben Bart of the Paramount Orchestra Bureau and personal representative of the four Scottsboro boys, announced last week in an exclusive interview with a Paramount Features Syndicate writer, that the four lads, Olin Montgomery, Willie Robertson, Roy Wright and Eugene Williams, will play a personal-appearance week at the 125th Street Apollo Theatre, the week beginning August 20, preparatory to a national tour in which they will appear at all the leading theatres, churches and auditoriums throughout the United States, Canada, and Europe.

In a letter to the Rev. Thomas S. Harten, who is acting as guardian for the boys, Frank Schiffman, manager and director of the Apollo Theatre, declared:

"We are happy to present these boys in our theatre. Not, we assure you, merely for the potential profit involved, but because we feel that these boys can be presented in an appropriate, dignified manner, giving the public an opportunity to see them and making it possible for them to accumulate a financial fund for whatever worthy purpose they and their advisors may deem most necessary and giving aid to the cause they symbolize."

The Paramount Orchestra Bureau, located at 1153 Atlantic avenue, Brooklyn, is also the agency which handles Tiny Broadshaw and his aggregation.
